BABY'S FACE
LOOKED LIKE RAW MEAT.

Our baby's face and neck was all raw meat, and something awful to look at. The way that child suffered, mother and child never had any rest day or night as it constantly itched, and the blood used to flow down her checks. We had doctors and the dispensary with no result. By using CUTICURA RESOLVENT, CUTICURA (ointment), and CUTICURA SOAP, the child was entirely healed.

MOTHERS, to know that a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, and a single anointing with CUTICURA, will afford instant relief in the most distressing of itching, burning, and scaly infantile humors of the skin and scalp, with loss of hair, and not to use them, is to fail in your duty.

SPAIN MAY REFUSE.

Some Doubt of Her Ceding the Philippines.

May See Them Seized, Scorning to Take Money.

While Yielding to Force, Will Yet Protest.

Arbitration Must Be the Resort, Says a Paris Journal--Spain Can't Afford to Decline Cash.

PARIS, Nov. 22.—The Spanish peace commissioners last night telegraphed to Madrid the substance of the memorandum presented yesterday, and late in the evening they were discussing it among themselves.

As late as 1 o'clock this morning a Spanish commissioner affirmed that he and his colleagues did not know what to do regarding the American offer.

There is a difference of opinion among unofficial people near the commissions, but the prediction is made that Spain will deline the American offer of money, that she will refuse to cede the Philippines, and will say to the United States:

"You may take the archipelago because you have the power to do so. As you advance we will retire, protesting against greedy aggression. We will faithfully carry out our protocol pledges and leave Cuba and Porto Rico in your hands. You came here to engage in a discussion under the terms of the protocol, but you evidently meant, when drawing up that document, to provide a conference in which, though we differ, man to man, you proposed to announce at the proper time what you will do, whether we will agree to it or object. Such an attitude robs the conference of a negotiative character and sets up the United States for the dominant power, whose first purpose is to listen, but whose ultimate determination is to do its own will."

It is said today that Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, at the conference yesterday remarked, after having heard the American offer, that if the vital portion had been read the Spaniards could answer instantly, but as the memorandum was a very long one they would defer their answer until Wednesday, adding that it would be easily possible to make it within forty-eight hours.

On the other hand, it is said the Spaniards cannot justify themselves before their people by throwing away $20,000,000, added to the inevitable loss of the Philippine islands.

The Gaulois today says:

"The commissions being divided into an equal number of voices on the subject of the cession or the retention of the archipelago, a recourse to arbitration is absolutely necessary and legal. The Americans, nevertheless, refuse to do so and attribute to themselves sovereignty over the Philippines without the consent of the conference. They therefore, themselves, tear up the protocol they had imposed upon the vanquished and, to keep up appearances and soften in the eyes of the world the violence of their proceedings, they offer the absurd compensation of $20,000,000."

THEY LIKE IT.

LONDON, Nov. 22—Most of the afternoon newspapers comment upon and express satisfaction at the "open door" intentions of the United States in the Philippine Islands.

The Pall Mall Gazette says:

"Whatever may happen in Porto Rico and eventually in the United States themselves, America's colonial policy in the Pacific is the 'open door.' It is a wise decision on every ground, in the interests of the prosperity of the Philippines themselves and as securing the good will of nations really friendly to America in the Pacific. The community of interests of the two English-speaking nations are thereby definitely assured."

A CABINET MEETING.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22—At the cabinet meeting today a brief telegram was read which had been sent from Paris by Day. It was substantially in accord with the newspaper reports of yesterday's proceedings, although no reference was made to excitement attending the meeting or to any open disagreement. It was stated that the next meeting would take place tomorrow. The cabinet discussed the matter and it was the judgment of the members that there would be at least one meeting after tomorrow even if the Spaniards have concluded to reject the Americans' proposal.

REPORT FROM BROOKE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The war department has received a dispatch from General Brooke about the reported disorders in the island of Porto Rico.

These reports were of such a character as to give the department some concern, as it was alleged that United States troops were making serious trouble for the inhabitants of the island.

General Brooke was cabled a statement of the case and requested to make an investigation. His reply is as follows:

"Ponce, Nov. 21.—Advices received daily from San Sebastian and other troublesome regions. Disorders were reported from that part of the island immediately after it came into our possession, but I have had it thoroughly patrolled and am still patrolling it. Everything quiet for three or four weeks. Several bandits have been killed or wounded by patrols. Reports very much exaggerated. Every point has been heard from today and quiet and good order prevails. BROOKE."

IN A SMOKE HOUSE.

Such Was the Home of the Aged Mrs. Louise Klenke.

Startling Disclosure Made by an Investigation of the Humane Society--News in the Courts.

L. C. Schlaudroff, humane officer, has reported startling disclosures in a case he was detailed to investigate. Mr. Schlaudroff went to Maples yesterday and there found an aged lady named Louise Klenke living a miserable existence in a smokehouse on the premises of her son, Christian Klenke. The case has been acted on by the Humane society and application will be made before Judge O'Rourke for the appointment of a guardian for the old lady. Mrs. Klenke is sixty-eight years of age.

FILED AN APPEAL.

At Columbia City Saturday Attorney Fred Zollars filed an appeal bond in the matter of the Mud Run ditch. He is not satisfied with the allotment made by Surveyor Gillespie against him for the clearing of the ditch. The case is set for hearing at the February term of court.

GONE INTO BANKRUPTCY.

Perry Zimmerman, of this city, and Lee Dare, of Columbia City, have filed petitions in bankruptcy, with Referee A. A. Chapin, of this city.

The White National bank has filed a bond of $5,000 as a depository of bankrupt funds.

A DRUNKARD'S RIGHTS.

The appellate court finds that a man may lawfully get drunk at a social party, at home or at any place which is not public. Holding a dance at a private residence does not make it a public place. Even though a stand is established in the dooryard for the sale of ice cream and candy to the dancers and persons who hear of the "party" attend and are entertained, as well as those who are invited, the place is still not public, and if a man gets drunk at the dance he is not guilty of being found in a state of intoxication in a public place. The court so held in the case of the state against Sanford Tincher, appealed from Sullivan county. Tincher was arrested for being drunk at an ice cream social and dance at a farm house in that county. The circuit court discharged him and the appellate court affirmed the case.

NOTES.

Judge O'Rourke dismissed the following cases: Wm. Weis vs. the Olds Wagon works, and Mary A. Miller vs. J. B. White estate.

Edward J. Eisele et al., sues Fred M. Graffe et al., for $650. Breen and Morris are attorneys for the plaintiffs.

In the case of John H. Louer a decree quieting title to real estate was rendered by Judge Dawson against John H. McGrew.

John B. Kerr, receiver for the Abbott Mineral Well company, filed a final report in the superior court.

Judge Dawson decreed to the Tri-State Building and Loan association a judgment for $1,517.89, and to Chas. Pape a judgment for $1,209.88 against Chas. W. Cook.

The claim docket will be called in the circuit court next Friday and all claims not then proved will be dismissed.

The will of the late James Hewes was probated today.

A ROUND ROBIN.

The Officers of the "President's Own" Asked to Resign.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 22.—A special to the Dispatch from Wooster, Ohio, says:

As the result of a secret meeting of the officers of the Eighth Ohio volunteers, the "President's own," a round robin, signed by all, was handed Colonel C. V. Hard, requesting him to resign. Lieutenant Colonel Charles Dick, congressman-elect, Quartermaster Kuhns and Adjutant A. W. Maynes are also asked to retire. Major E. C. Weydrecht presented the document to Colonel Hard, who demanded to know whether the request was because of inefficiency or of charges preferred or because he was a coward, to all of which a negative was returned.

Colonel Hard refused to resign and said those dissatisfied could take that step.

Desire for promotion on the part of subordinates is given by Colonel Hard's friends as the cause of the round robin.

OLD BOREAS ANGRY.

Northwest in the Freezing Grasp of Winter.

Cold Wave is Spreading All Over the Country.

A Freeze-Up Follows the Blizzard Across Indiana.

A Temperature of 26 Degrees Below Zero Registered at Some Points in the Far Northwest.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—The severe storm prevailing has moved northeastward and is central today over the upper lake region, attended with rain or snow over the western lake region, and the Ohio, Mississippi and Missouri valleys. The cold wave is moving forward in the rear of the storm, being felt today as far eastward as Lake Michigan, Illinois and Indiana.

The lowest temperature reported is in the extreme northwest, 26 below zero, and the zero temperature line runs southward as far as central Nebraska and western Iowa.

It is an unusually severe cold wave for this season of the year, but it is moderating somewhat in the north Rocky Mountain region. Very dangerous gales continue from the northwest over Lake Superior and Lake Michigan. The wind velocity at Duluth is fifty-six miles.

Temperatures today ranged from 10 below to 18 below in Minnesota and the Dakotas; 6 to 8 above in Iowa and Nebraska; 4 below to 4 above in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and Indiana; Ohio reports 4 to 18 above.

Every road running into Chicago from the west and northwest reports more or less delay to trains on account of the blizzard. The Chicago and Northwestern overland limited is twelve hours late, and nearly every train from the north is from one to three hours behind schedule time. Very few vessels have left Chicago since yesterday.

INTENSELY COLD.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 22.—Snow has ceased to fall at most points in the southwest and has been followed by the coldest weather of the season, the thermometer generally hovering around the zero mark and on the prairies registering from 2 to 4 degrees below. A high wind is drifting the snow badly and more or less seriously hampering the train and telegraph service. Reports of suffering to cattle are frequent.

The coal mines of Pittsburg, Kansas, and vicinity, already behind in filling their orders as a result of the recent Illinois and Colorado strikes, are having difficulty in supplying the necessities of the market.

SNOWSTORMS CONTINUE.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 22.—The snowstorm continued throughout the night and the wind is still busy piling up drifts.

Wires are working reasonably well and the main lines of the railroads are open, trains arriving only a few minutes late. Branch lines were not so fortunate, however, some of them being almost blocked in this state and Wisconsin.

Locally business was almost at a standstill because of the lack of street car facilities. On one of their busiest lines the street railway recently substituted electricity for cable system and this line, which formerly was available when the electric lines were stopped, is today knocked out. No cars are running in any part of the city.

BIG FIGHT TONIGHT.

Corbett and Sharkey to Pummel Each Other.

Both Pugilists Reported in Pink of Condition--Gotham Overflowing With Patrons of Pugilism.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Today this city is the rendezvous of thousands of men identified with pugilism, who come from all over the United States to watch James J. Corbett and Thomas Sharkey settle the question of fistic supremacy before the Lenox Athletic club tonight. The up-town hotels are thronged with visitors and the trains arriving at the several depots brought contingents of sporting men who are all anxious to see the contest.

Corbett still holds his position as favorite in the betting, the Sharkey people getting 100 to 80 for their money whenever a wager is made.

Both pugilists are resting today, Corbett at his residence in this city, and Sharkey at his training quarters in South Brooklyn.

The reports from both quarters are similar to those given out last night, which announced the men to be in splendid physical condition.

Each side seems to think its man invincible, but the majority opinion favors Corbett, who in the past has shown himself to be by far the cleverer fighter.

Many claim that Sharkey has improved wonderfully and none of them is more confident of the sailor's chances of victory than his manager and trainer, Tom O'Rourke. Speaking of his man today, O'Rourke said:

"Sharkey will be a surprise to many when he strips tonight. I tell you he has learned a great deal and is vastly improved. I am confident he will win."

Sharkey will remain at his Brooklyn quarters until about 4 o'clock this afternoon, when he will be driven to this city and put to bed at a hotel near the Lenox club house. It is expected that 10,000 persons will witness tonight's contest. The seating capacity of the big structure is about 7,800 and about one-third as many can have standing room.

The sales of seats up to the present has been enormous and all the best seats ranging in price from ten to twenty dollars each have been sold.

Admission to the building will cost $3, and these tickets will not be put on sale until the last moment.

The five and seven dollar seats are being bought rapidly today and by 6 o'clock tonight the speculators expect to get double prices for these paste-boards. The doors of the club house will be thrown open at 6 o'clock so that there will be very little crowding at the entrances.

RUNAWAY LADS.

Arrested by Detective Redmond and Held in Jail.

An Effort Made to Find Their Parents--A Drunk and Two Train Climbers Let Go.

This morning Detective Redmond, of the Pennsylvania company, brought up two white boys and one colored youth, whom he arrested in the railroad yards last night as they alighted from an incoming freight from the west. The trio were locked up at the police station and gave fictitious names. The two white lads, who were younger than their dusky companion, gave their ages as thirteen and fifteen, while the colored prisoner said he was "just comin' twenty-two." His companions evidently recognized him as their leader, and as they were boys of evident respectability, the mayor issued an order to have the three prisoners held until an investigation can be made. It is believed that the lads were enticed away from home by the colored youth. Superintendent Gorsline wrote to the authorities at Chicago, where the boys claim to live.

PRISONERS LET GO.

Two train jumpers arrested by Detective Dinger were let go. Jack Tomilson, arrested by Officer Romy for drunkenness, was given a lecture and also released.

A BOGUS SOLDIER.

A weary looking man, whose appearance would indicate that he had lately emerged from the late Spanish-American war, has been working the citizens the last few days on a very old and often tried racket. The stranger, with his arm in a sling and his face painfully distorted, has been in the habit of approaching pedestrians and delivering a stereotyped oration about his awful suffering through the campaign of Santiago, and to emphasize his case he taps his "wounded" arm. With the shekels so gathered he fills himself with a very bad quality of whisky. The police have been notified to look out for the Santiago campaigner.

EAT AND BE MERRY.

That Will be the Happy Fate of Institution Children.

Six Hundred Pounds of Turkey for the Indiana School--A Feast Assured for the Orphans' Home.

King Turkey will have the place of honor at many feasts on Thanksgiving day but it is doubtful if he will cause greater joy or appease healthier appetites than at several of the children's institutions.

The Indiana School for Feeble Minded Youth leads the list for the magnitude of a Thanksgiving dinner. This morning Superintendent Johnson contracted with the Keystone grocery for six hundred pounds of turkey, which means about sixty birds.

The Allen County Orphans' Home will have several fine large turkeys and the little folks will have a great celebration. "Mamma" Overmeyer has received a number of letters from her young charges, and all of them tell of things that the children are thankful for.

At the Reformed Orphans' Home and St. Vincents there will be unusual spreads, such as only Thanksgiving menus can produce.

With all of these dinners there will be no lack of cranberries, nuts and candies.

The "Manchester Martyrs."

In connection with the lecture to be given by Father M. J. Byrne tomorrow evening, to commemorate the execution of Allen, Larken and O'Brien, the "Manchester Martyrs," there will be a musical program, as follows:

"Erin on the Rhine"	Adolph Schulte
"Kate O'Donoghue"	Alice Ryan
"The Exile's Dream"	Tillie Reilley
"Sweet Inniscarren"	Mrs. B. W. Applegate
Instrumental—Zobo horn	Anna Schnieders
"Star of Hope"	Agnes Passino
"Come Back to Erin"	Alice O'Connor
Instrumental	Misses Clausmeier
"Idol of Paradise Alley"	Charles Dunne

Mrs. Henry was a native of Ohio, but had lived in Fort Wayne over a decade at the time of her death.

Mr. Feaser's face was badly cut and he sustained a slight concussion. The man was brought to the city for medical treatment and his recovery must necessarily be slow.

THE COUNTY'S POOR

A Visit to the Home for the Homeless.

A Party of Visitors Guests of Superintendent Felts.

Everything at the County Farm in Fine Condition.

The Farm Being Made to Produce a Rich Abundance--What the Year's Crops Amount to.

If there is one institution in Allen county that its citizens may well feel proud of it is the county asylum presided over by Superintendent Herman W. Felts and wife.

On invitation of the county commissioners several newspaper men and other citizens visited the asylum and were royally entertained by the superintendent and his charming wife today.

The party was composed of the following people: Mr. and Mrs. Captain Hettler, Sheriff and Mrs. A. E. Melching, Michael Baltes, Trustee M. F. Schmetzer, J. F. W. Meyer, A. Martin, A. J. Moynihan, of the Journal, Sam Moffat, of the News, Emil Miller, of the Gazette, and a representative of THE SENTINEL.

The visitors were shown through the handsome new residence recently built by the commissioners and now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Felts and help on the farm. The building makes a very pretty and cosy home.

The lower floor is used as the residence proper for the superintendent and his wife and the upper floor is occupied as sleeping apartments by the help. In the basement is the kitchen and store room.

Mr. and Mrs. Felts showed the visitors through the asylum proper and they were simply amazed at what they saw. Everything was neat and clean as a pin and everywhere there was system. Citizens, without paying a visit to the asylum, cannot realize what a magnificent institution it really is. At present there are 113 inmates, seventy-six men and thirty-seven women. They are kept entirely separate, each having attendants of their own sex. Most of the inmates are aged people without homes, but there are some who are of feeble mind and at present several who are of unsound mind. These latter are not dangerous, however. Many of them have been to the state asylums and there pronounced incurable, while three or four have been recently placed in the institution awaiting an opportunity to send them to the overcrowded state institution.

The dormitories on the second floor are kept in the best of condition, and steam heat is forced through the big structure to protect the inmates from the cold. It is necessary to keep the temperature somewhat warmer than in the average home for the reason that three-fourths of the inmates are aged people. THE SENTINEL reporter conversed with some of them and they all speak highly of their treatment by Mr. and Mrs. Felts. They seem to appreciate, too, that they have a respectable home and there is not that often expressed feeling of shame that induced inmates to hide themselves from visitors. In fact, to the visitor, the asylum does not appear to be a charitable institution. Many of the inmates, while poor, are able to work and take a pride in assisting about the farm.

There are very few who do not do enough work during the year to pay for their care by the county.

In the hospital ward for men there are at present only three patients. There are the same number in the insane ward.

While the visitors were in the ladies' ward, Susie Blackburn entertained them by playing a march on the organ, which the commissioners have kindly provided for the ladies' enjoyment.

The inmates have better edibles than many families who do not think they are so very poor. Miss Mary Miller is the cook and when THE SENTINEL representative visited the kitchen she was cooking the following menu for dinner:

Fresh pork, sauer kraut, dumplings, Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, pickled beets and pumpkin pie. Tea was to be served also.

Several of the women are unable to come down stairs, and there is provided for them on the second floor a sitting room where they can sit and chat. One girl, a cripple, has crocheted and knitted many handsome articles which she has for sale, in an effort to pay a doctor bill, and hopes in this manner to raise enough money to go to Ann Arbor and have an operation performed.

The bread, the pies and all other pastry are baked in the asylum bakery. Vegetables in abundance are raised each year, the biggest expense to the county being the purchase of fresh beef and groceries. On the farm are raised all the pork that can be used, tons of garden stuff and thousands of melons and pumpkins.

The stock is fed from stuff raised on the farm and Mr. Felts has in use a feed-cookery of his own make, which gives the stock the best of chop.

There are fifteen or sixteen cows on the farm and it is unnecessary to purchase butter or milk. There is plenty of cold storage and everything used is fresh.

Scattered about the five wings of the asylum are as many different hose attached to the big pump, thus giving the best of fire protection. Stored away in the basement of the asylum are 1,100 cans of tomatoes and 600 quarts of other canned goods. Thousands of bushels of potatoes, apples and turnips are stored for the winter.

At the noon hour the visitors sat down to a delicious dinner, to which they all did ample justice, a fact that will be willingly attested by Sheriff Melching and Editor Moynihan. The newspaper men left the other visitors in complete possession of the institution at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Scene of Gaiety at the Red Men's Trading Post.

Tableaux and Other Features Tonight--Many Indian Curios are on Exhibition--Dancing Every Night.

The fair of the Order of Red Men, or more properly called the trading post, opened at the Princess rink last evening with a good program. The Red Men, after a parade on the streets, entered the rink and took possession of their camp, which is a collection of wigwams in the south end of the rink. After a stated program had been rendered a band of palefaces discoursed music to which the warriors and their friends danced. An attractive feature of the fair is the collection of relics on exhibition. Most of the booths are presided over by the ladies of Minnewa council, No. 69, Degree of Pocahontas. TO LIE IN STATE.

Remains of the Late Gen. Don Carlos Buell Now in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 22.—The body of Gen. Don Carlos Buell, retired, United States army, who died in Louisville, reached here today and is lying in state in St. Francis Xavier church, where many people took a last look at the dead officer. KENNEDY'S NO MORE

Fire Sweeps Away the Notorious Road House.

Blaze Started at Eleven O'clock This Morning.

The Building and Contents Totally Destroyed.

A Resort That Has Caused the Police More Trouble Than Any Other One Dive in the City--No Insurance.

At 11 o'clock this forenoon fire started in the notorious road house of Phil Kennedy, on the Huntington road, near Lindenwood cemetery, and the flames, aided by a brisk wind, made quick work of the building and almost everything it contained.

The blaze had its origin in a rear room upstairs, where the oil from a gasoline stove leaked and caught fire and speedily communicated to the woodwork.

The destructive element had taken a firm hold before the discovery was made and although the fire department was summoned, it was to late to save the building or contents. The only piece of furniture saved was a piano, and this was taken out only through the united efforts of several daring firemen. The building contained a bar and bar-room furniture and a quantity of beer and liquors, and the upstairs was furnished into bed-rooms. The loss is not covered by insurance and will amount to probably $1,500.

A GOOD RIDDANCE.

This wiping out of the Kennedy roadhouse so completely will be a surprise with some agreeable features in it. Since Kennedy took possession of the place some two years ago it has been an eyesore to the decent elements of the city, and a source of continual annoyance and harrassment to the police. It has baffled numerous efforts at a successful raiding, because spies were always kept on the lookout for the approach of the patrol wagon. In its brief history under Kennedy the place accomplished enough wickedness for a decade. While there are few persons in this city who are of heart to rejoice over material losses that may come to any man, there are still fewer who will be able to find in their hearts anything that borders upon regret that this evil place has been obliterated. It is a sort of providential riddance.

WIRES DOWN.

Several poles along the Pennsylvania tracks caught fire and burned down, breaking the wires and interfering with the service until repairs could be made.

TUNNEL TALK.

Committee Meets But Postpones Action for a Week.

Will Confer With the Railroad Officials in the Meantime--City Wants Tunnel at Harrison Street.

The special committee to whom was referred the matter of putting a tunnel under the railroad tracks of the Pennsylvania and Wabash companies, met last evening to consider the matter, but action was postponed for a week to give the officials of the railroad companies an opportunity to talk with the committee. The Wabash wants the tunnel at Clinton street, and the the Pennsylvania wants it at Harrison. The city favors Harrison, and a strong effort will be made to put the tunnel there, it being the impression in municipal circles that the objections of the Wabash people will be satisfactorily overcome. The tunnel will be built at either of the streets named.

IS AN "open door" policy better for the Philippines than for the United States?

THE formation of a milling trust need rouse no apprehension. To make good bread, it is well known, flour must be raised.

ALREADY the evils of absorbing too much Spanish territory are beginning to show up. Denver is making preparations to have a public bull-fight.

THAT Inventor Keely did not spend his efforts in vain is proved by the announcement that his widow has a chronicle of his doings which embraces 2,000 pages of manuscript. It is surely a great secret that cannot be contained in smaller bulk.

ALREADY the British newspapers have expressed their hearty approval of the "open door" policy the United States has announced for the commerce of the Philippines. As Great Britain already controls about four-fifths of the Philippine trade and expects to keep it, she is in very gay humor over the situation.

NICKUM, the perpetual light man, of Logansport, has been indicted by the federal grand jury at Indianapolis, charged with having engaged in fraudulent practices with respect to his invention. Mr. Nickum may cite the experience of the late Mr. Keely, of motor fame, who was frequently arrested charged with fraud, but he should recollect that the Keely motor didn't "mote" any more than the Nickum light illuminates.

JUDGING from the tone of our exchanges it looks very much as though Judge R. S. Taylor, of this city, is daily gaining strength in his senatorial candidacy. Judge Taylor is recognized as personally and intellectually far and away the strongest candidate now spoken of and this fact is doing him much more good, we believe, than opposing politicians can do him harm. Fort Wayne, Allen county and, indeed, all northern Indiana should and we think soon will be unanimous in the demand that Judge Taylor be made the next United States senator from Indiana.

A MORE serious aspect is imparted to the charges against Senator Quay by the bill of indictment returned by the grand jury. He is, with his son, Richard, and Benjamin Haywood, former state treasurer of Pennsylvania, formally indicted on charge of conspiracy to unlawfully use in stock speculation monies deposited in the wrecked People's bank of Philadelphia. When he and his associates were arrested on the eve of an election closing a campaign in which Senator Quay had been most bitterly antagonized by a hostile faction of his own party, it was easy to charge the whole affair to politics and easy enough to make many good and sensible people believe that was all there was in the matter. But now comes the grand jury with true bills against the senator and his son and Haywood. It is hardly to be thought with reason that politics cut any figure in the jury room. Evidence of a positive and grave nature must have been presented to the jury. Public opinion will not be hasty to condemn the senator, nor will it acquit him on his own denial. Quay is in a tight hole and his progress up and out of it will be watched with interest.

THERE WAS NO RUPTURE.

Happily the report cabled yesterday that the peace negotiations in Paris had been ruptured by the withdrawal of the Spanish plenipotentaries from further conference proves to have been false. The French cable company, it seems, was imposed upon by a forged dispatch sent in the name of the Associated Press by unscrupulous speculators to promote stock-jobbing schemes.

The United States yesterday demanded of Spain the entire Philippine archipelago and made the Madrid representatives a tender of $20,000,000 indemnity for a treaty cession of the islands. Spain, though much distressed, evidently, by the force of circumstances which oblige her to submit to the terms of what is practically this government's ultimatum, will accept this proposition, no doubt, as the best she can do. Other details of the pending treaty are by comparison of small moment and with the vexed question of the Philippines now eliminated from the conference, the completion of the terms of peace ought to be brought about with considerable dispatch.

The wisdom of the new radical policy laid out by the administration for this republic is a concern that will implore the profound and patriotic attention of all the people. Problems of the utmost gravity are presented and never have the people been face to face with a question possessing two sides so radically different. The slave question, with its seven decades of national turmoil and the fratricidal war which was its fruit, was in some respects a smaller question than the proposed policy of territorial expansion. That involved only domestic conditions and domestic consequences. The present question is international, world-big, and, though opening a wide vista of national possibilities alluring and majestic, is fraught with perils no patriot should seek to conceal from his own understanding nor gloss over to the view of others.

A FRAGMENT.

Lines inscribed by Hon. Robert C. Bell, of Fort Wayne, to his friend, James Whitcomb Riley.

And hope and fear are ever near,
The one with light, the other gloom,
Yet come what may, in night or day,
With winter's frost or summer's bloom,
The bright, glad past is ours at last,
With all its memories dear.

Let's bear the load o'er dreary road,
Though done with bleeding feet;
The good God knows our joy and woes,
Our faults and failings all;
How weak our wills, how great our ills,
How prone we are to fall.

KEELY'S SECRET.

In a Manuscript of 2,000 Pages He Describes His Mysterious "Motor."

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 22.—B. L. Ackermann, president of the Keely Motor company, arrived here from New York in response to a telegram from Mrs. Keely. He said this afternoon: "Mr. Keely's secret did not die with him. On my arrival at Mrs. Keely's house I found her so prostrated that she was unable to more than state that that Mr. Keely had left in her possession a manuscript of 2,000 pages, which explains the whole system and the work it has done.

"I have been closely associated with Mr. Keeley in his work for twenty-five years and I was among the first to see the value of his plans. As a mechanical engineer I have frequently examed his machines and I have often discussed his experiments with him. Therefore, today I have greater faith than I ever held in the practical value of his discoveries."

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE.

Meeting to be Held Under the Auspices of the Fort Wayne Missionary Union.

MANY PRAISES

Words of Appreciation From Y. M. C. A. Delegates.

A General Expression of Fort Wayne's Warm Hospitality on the Occasion of the Recent Convention.

J. W. Burns, secretary of the R. R. Y. M. C. A., is daily in receipt of letters from various parts of the country expressing an appreciation of Fort Wayne's warm hospitality upon the occasion of the recent Ninth International conference of the railroad department, Y. M. C. A., and commenting on the success of that meeting. As showing the drift of these letters THE SENTINEL publishes a few of them, as follows:

Selma, Alabama, Journal: "Mr. Oldham was seen by a reporter this morning, and he says that the south, with all its famous hospitality, must certainly yield to Fort Wayne, for such attention and lavish hospitality was never bestowed in greater measure to any visitors than to the delegates to the International Conference."

Western Christian Advocate: "It was a grand sight to see so many men representing all departments of railroad activity so earnestly engaged in religious work."

Baltimore Railroad Men: "The delegates report a splendid convention and great enthusiasm. It was the largest conference of the kind ever held."

B. F. Stephens, Elkhart, Ind.: "I must express my thanks for the excellent entertainment you provided and appreciate your efficient efforts which made it possible to have so grand and successful a meeting."

Augustus Nash, Warren, Ohio: "Was never at a conference that impressed me more."

W. G. Chamberlain, jr., Louisville, Ky.: "I wish to extend my very sincere thanks for the kind entertainment and cordial hospitality extended to myself and fellow delegates. It is with gratitude that I realize what a privilege we have enjoyed, and how much we are indebted to your association for making our stay so pleasant and profitable."

The "Young Man," Louisville, Ky.: "Far exceeded any gathering it has been the privilege of our delegates to attend."

The Lackawanna "Bell," Scranton, Pa.: "The delegates report a grand meeting."

ST. MARY'S CLOSED.

Board of Health Issues the Order This Morning.

Prevalence of Diphtheria Among the Pupils the Cause--Request to Have Doors Closed Two Weeks.

This morning the city board of health issued an order to Father Oechtering to close the St. Mary's school on account of the prevalence of diphtheria among the pupils of the school. There are six pupils down with the disease and it is feared that others have been exposed and that by continued school sessions the dreaded infection will be carried farther. The cases reported are at the following locations: 29 Schick street, 31 Walton avenue, 101 Maumee avenue, 367 East Wayne street and corner of Lafayette and Jefferson streets. The request of the health board was readily acceded to by Father Oechtering, who is certainly anxious to prevent the spread of diphtheria among the children under his charge. The school will probably be closed two weeks.

ONLY ONE OTHER CASE.

The health board only has one other case on hand besides the St. Mary's pupils. There are three homes in the city where scarlet fever cards are up.

A GREAT REMEDY.

For Sufferers From Piles.

Dr. Redmond, a specialist in the study and treatment of piles and rectal diseases, recently stated that the Pyramid Pile Cure, the new discovery for the cure of piles, was the most remarkable remedy he had ever seen or tried in one respect; and that was the instant relief experienced in all cases, no matter how severe, from the moment the remedy was applied. This was the more surprising to him because he had carefully analyzed the the preparation and no trace of opium, cocaine or similar poison could be detected.

Physicians look with great favor upon the Pyramid Pile Cure, because it is rapidly taking place of surgical operations and because it is so simple, so easily applied and contains no mineral or other poisons so commonly used in cures.

Dr. Esterbrook reports that the Pyramid Pile Cure not only cures the various forms of piles, but never fails to give immediate relief on the first application, no matter how severe the pain or discomfort may be.

People who have suffered from piles for years are often astonished at the instant relief experienced from the first application. Another important advantage is the fact that any one can use the remedy without detention from business or interference with daily occupation. Sold by druggists at 50 cents per package.

Send to Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich, for free book on cause and cure of piles.

THE CASE OF KILMER.

A Northern Indiana Normal Student Meets With Foul Play.

Young Missourian Found Dead and His Family Confident He Was Murdered—Northern Indiana Notes.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Nov. 22.—The supposed suicide of Bert Kimler, of Briscoe, Mo., whose dead body was found in the woods, near this city, a week ago, may prove a case of foul play. Kimler was visiting at his home, and returned to this city to attend the Normal school, and it is now learned that he was presented with $4,000 in cash by his father before leaving, and should have had at the time of his death about $600 left out of his traveling expenses.

He was in Chicago about two hours before arriving here, and it is now thought he was followed here and robbed. His father is here investigating, and does not put much credence in the rough-on-rats boxes found in his pocket, nor the note pinned to his vest, that offered evidence of his suicide. Young Kimler was of a cheerful disposition and had about $2,300 to his credit in bank, besides the $4,000 presented to him a few days ago.

A NERVY LITTLE GIRL.

She Falls Into a Well and Keeps Afloat Until Rescued.

WATERLOO, Ind., Nov. 22.—The five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myrtle, of Chicago, who, with her mother, is visiting the family of John Rohm in West Waterloo, while playing about the premises yesterday afternoon, fell into a well twenty feet deep, which contained several feet of water. The little girl was taught to swim last summer and she was able to keep afloat. In the meantime the alarm was sounded and the mother, who was not much frightened, let down a bucket attached to a clothes line, telling her child to cling to it while she drew her up. The little girl was unable to hold fast and she dropped back into the water when half way to the surface, but she kept afloat until help came and she was rescued. In the first fall she received a scalp wound by striking the stone wall. She was also chilled by the water, but no serious consequences resulted.

Overstocked With Medicine.

LAPORTE, Ind., Nov. 22.—Michael Blue was found dead near Bremen, and his death was believed to have resulted from heart disease. An investigation shows, however, that death was caused by taking too much medicine, which had been prescribed for a chronic ailment. His long-continued ill health and despondency gave credence to the theory of suicide.

A Law Partnership.

LAGRANGE, Ind., Nov. 22.—Ex-Senator James S. Drake, of this city, of the law firm of Drake & Merritt, has formed a partnership with Charles W. Miller, at Goshen, succeeding Judge Francis E. Baker, in the well-known firm of Baker & Miller. The Hon. F. D. Merritt, who has been a partner with Mr. Drake since 1879, will continue the practice of law in this city.

HOLDS FIRST PLACE.

First Baptist Church of Fort Wayne Leads in Indiana.

Centennial Celebration Begins at the Baptist Tabernacle This Afternoon--A Meeting Tonight.

The Baptist churches of Indiana today celebrate the centennial of the existence of the church, and the Baptist Tabernacle of this city—Pastor Henson's church—observing the anniversary on a big scale. At 3 o'clock this afternoon the pastors and members of the Fort Wayne conference held a conference and at 7:30 this evening the centennial service will be held.

There is no formally arranged program for the meeting tonight, but there will be addresses, music and general discussion, followed by an "acquaintance social," giving all an opportunity to get together and have a talk. The principal addresses of the evening will be given by Rev. C. M. Carter, pastor of the First Baptist church, at Muncie; Rev. Albert Ogle, of Indianapolis, and Rev. L. L. Henson. Rev. Carter is one of the best known Baptists in the state, having for several years been president of the Indiana Baptists' convention. Rev Ogle is superintendent of the missien work in the state.

One hundred years ago today in the village of Silver Creek, a few miles north of Louisville, the first Baptist congregation in the state of Indiana was organized. Today there are 523 Baptist churches in the state, the aggregate membership of which is over 55,000. Fort Wayne boasts of the largest congregation in the state, the membership of the Baptist Tabernacle, of which the Rev. L. L. Henson is pastor, numbering over one thousand.

THE CHURCH IN FORT WAYNE.

The history of the Baptist church in Fort Wayne dates back to 1820, when the Rev. Isaac McCoy, under the appointment of the Baptist triennial convention, came as a missionary to the Miami and Pottawamie Indian tribes, whose reservations were located in this vicinity. On August 3, 1822, a regular church was organized. A scourge of malarial fever retarded the growth of the church at this time and it was not until 1837, when the present congregation was organized, that any progress was made.

On January 14, 1837, a number of regular Baptists from different churches, who had moved from different parts to Fort Wayne and vicinity, convened in the brick school house and on Sunday, April 16, 1837, the church was duly organized, the hand of fellowship being extended by Elder Frye and the sermon preached by Elder Moore. On March 1, 1869, the Rev. J. R. Stone, D. D., was installed as pastor of the church. He resigned to accept a call from Lansing, Mich., where after a brief pastorate he laid down this life's work.

The Rev. Stephen A. Northrop, D. D, who resigned as pastor July 7, 1895, succeeded the Rev. Dr. Stone as pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle. When he was succeeded by the present incumbent, Rev. L. L. Henson, the church boasted of 855 members. During his pastorate, the fiftieth anniversary of the church was celebrated, April 15, 1887, being known as "Jubilee Day." The increasing membership necessitated enlarging the church building, and on September 29th the corner stone for the present building was laid, the improvements made aggregating a cost of $8,000.

Rev. Llewellyn L. Henson, the present pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, accepted the call made pursuant to the resignation of Rev. Stephen A. Northrop, D. D., and was duly installed as pastor the first Sunday in October, 1895. As has been previously stated, there were 855 members when he assumed the pastorate, and today his flock numbers over a thousand.

The officers of the church are men of the highest business and social standing. The board of deacons comprises Messrs. William Carter, chairman; James A. Gavin, H. A. Philley, W. A. Ross, George Ellenwood, A. H. Polhamus, S. F. Bowser, A. C. Beaver, John Currier and C. M. La Rue. On the board of trustees the following gentlemen serve: Messrs. John Ferguson, chairman; O. N. Heaton, Eli S. Philley, Allen Zollars and Louis Diether. The other officers of the church are: George Miller, clerk; F. C. Cratsley, treasurer; George Kuntz, chief usher; John Conahan, sexton; A. H. Polhamus, superintendent of Sunday school; S. F. Bowser, superintendent of the Baptist Brotherhood: Mrs. Gus Currier, president Ladies' society; Mrs. J. B. Pellens, president Ladies' Missionary society; Charles A. Hood, president of the Baptist Young People's Union of America, and Miss Irma Medsker, president of Junior B. Y. P. U.

When the Rev. L. L. Henson assumed the pastorate of the church, there were but two Baptist missions in the city, one in South Wayne, and the other on the north side. At the present time there are six as follows: South Wayne mission, A. C. Beaver, superintendent of Sunday school; Mrs. F. C. Woods, president Ladies' Missionary society. North Side mission, E. Lichtenwalter, superintendent of Sunday school; Mrs. C. Josse, president of Mission Builders. East Side mission, Dr. M. Harrod, superintendent. Hanna Street mission, C. M. LaRue, superintendent. AN OPERATION AVOIDED.

Mrs. Rosa Gaum Writes to Mrs. Pinkham About it. She Says:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I take pleasure in writing you a few lines to inform you of the good your Vegetable Compound has done me. I cannot thank you enough for what your medicine has done for me; it has, indeed, helped me wonderfully. For years I was troubled with an ovarian tumor, each year growing worse, until at last I was compelled to consult with a physician. He said nothing could be done for me but to go under an operation.

In speaking with a friend of mine about it, she recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, saying she knew it would cure me. I then sent for your medicine, and after taking three bottles of it, the tumor disappeared. Oh! you do not know how much good your medicine has done me. I shall recommend it to all suffering women.—MRS. ROSA GAUM, 720 Wall St., Los Angeles, Cal.

The great and unvarying success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in relieving every derangement of the female organs, demonstrates it to be the modern safeguard of woman's happiness and bodily strength. More than a million women have been benefited by it.

Every woman who needs advice about her health is invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass.

A desperate looking man, with two drawn revolvers, is not a pleasant person to meet at a lonely cross-road. Most men will go a long way out of their road to avoid such an encounter. The same men will recklessly neglect their health and court death in the guise of consumption or some other equally fatal disease. One-sixth of all the deaths each year are due to this most fatal of maladies.

Until very recent years, consumption was considered absolutely incurable. It is now known to be curable. During the past thirty years it has been demonstrated that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease before the lungs are too much wasted, also bronchitis, asthma, laryngitis and all diseases of all the air-passages. It acts directly on the lungs, driving out all impurities and disease germs. It soothes the cough, facilitates expectoration, thus thoroughly clearing the lungs. It purifies and enriches the blood and tears down, carries off and excretes old, inert, half-dead tissues, replacing them with the new, firm, muscular tissues of health. It is the great appetite sharpener, blood-maker, flesh-builder, nerve-tonic and restorative. Thousands who had been given up to die have been restored to complete, robust health by this marvelous medicine. Do not buy from unscrupulous dealers who try to force upon you something beside what you ask for. There is nothing to take the place of it, or, which is "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

"I had the grip, which left me feeling miserable—no strength and a cough," writes Mrs. C. Maynard, of East Lyme, New London Co., Conn. "As some of my family died with consumption, I was frightened. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. After taking the second bottle I felt much better, and am now well."

HOW IT HAPPENED.

Conductor Quick Tells the Story of the Explosion.

Had Plenty of Water and Only 130 Pounds of Steam—Nickel Plate Officials Here.

The accident at Converse, Ohio, last Sunday morning, which resulted in the loss of one life and the maiming of three other persons, is an interesting subject for conversation in railway circles. Boiler explosions on railways are of such rare occurrence that when an accident of that character does happen, railway men are deeply interested in it and make an effort to discover the cause. The one on the Erie road Sunday was the most disastrous of the several that have occurred recently, and on that account, perhaps, is attracting an unusual amount of attention. The unfortunate engine was 709, recently rebuilt and its number changed from 319. Because of the many accidents this engine has met with it was considered a "Jonah" by the enginemen, and it is said that some of them were afraid to take it out under the old number and on this account the change was made. The two most serious wrecks this locomotive had prior to the one at Converse were at Markle and Wilders. The story of the explosion, as told by Conductor Quick to a reporter of the Huntington News-Democrat, is as follows:

"We heard at Lima that train No. 90 had killed four horses between Spencerville and Converse and were all on the lookout for the spot upon which they met their death. Dave was standing on the gangway between the engine boiler and the tank, when I last looked at him. I had just turned around and was looking out of the window when I felt the engine give a lung upward. My first thought was that an air hose had burst, but as soon as the engine came down on the track again I knew that she had blown up. The first thing I then did was to look back to see if the cars in the train were coming up over the tank and the next thought was to escape. The front pony trucks of the engine, when it came down after the explosion, lit on the track, but the drivers were off on the ties. The train ran about six car lengths after the explosion before it stopped. When it stopped the engine began to quiver than started to tip over on the fireman's side, the side I was on. Up until that time I had been unable to get out of the engine cab, but when she went to fall over, I succeeded in getting my foot on the window, jumping out on the ground just in time, for before I had hardly touched the ground the engine was on her side. Engineer Shurtleff, when the explosion occurred, was thrown forward and went out through the cab door leading out on the running board. When the engine turned it threw Mr. Shurtleff clear over the top of the cab, alighting just a few feet from me. We both were badly frightened and I felt awfully sick at my stomach as soon as I had regained my senses.

"Frank Smith, my brakeman, was standing on the engineer's side and he was thrown back over the tender and lit in the ditch. His injuries consisted of some very bad scalds, bruises and several large holes in the back of his head. Smith is the worst hurt of we three, as his wounds are such that will take some time to heal. Poor Dave Little was the most unfortunate of us all. As before stated, he was standing in the gangway and had just opened the firebox door to put in some more coal when the concussion occurred. No one knows how he met his death, as there was no living eyewitness, but it is believed by my entire crew that he was stooping down to put some coal in the firebox when she 'let go' and that the force of the steam and water threw him clear over the tank and he either fell down between the first car (which was a refrigerator) and engine or was blown clear over that car and lit between the second car, which was a gondola, loaded with coal, and the first car. As soon as Shurtleff and I were able, we began a search for Dave. Under the rear end of the coal car I found him, almost completely buried with coal, which had been thrown out by the sudden stopping of the train. He was rolled up in a ball and every bit of his clothing had either been blown off or torn off of him, for when we found him there was nothing on him at all. He was not badly mangled, but had been scalded and burned fearfully, his entire body giving evidence that he was horribly burned. It is my opinion that he never knew what had killed him.

"In an incredibly short time a great crowd of farmers had arrived on the scene and they set at work to dig the poor fellow out from under the car. Their task was finished at 12 o'clock. He was placed on a cot and brought to Ohio City by the engine pulling train 82 We, Shurtleff and myself, were driven in a wagon by an accommodating farmer to Elgin, where we made a report. Brakeman Smith was placed in a buggy and also taken to Elgin."

President Canniff Here.

President Canniff, of the Nickel Plate, was in the city an hour today, coming in on a special from the east. He was accompanied by General Superintendent A. W. Johnston, Motive Power Superintendent John McKinzie, Chief Engineer G. W. Vaughan, Superintendent C. D. Gorham and several other officials. The party is out on an inspection trip. Concerning Mr. Canniff, the Laporte Argus of a recent date had the following to say: "Superintendent Canniff, of the Lake Shore, is one of the very few who have acquired a high position in railroad life in recent years without being a relative of the railroad royal family. Canniff began his railroad career at Pittsford, where he sawed wood in the depot. While employed there he learned telegraphing and railroad business. His first post was at Trenton, on the Detroit branch. When the Union Pacific was opened he took a station at Lone Tree, Neb. He thought the country was rather new and returned to the Lake Shore. He was made station agent at Salem Crossing, now Otis, Ind. Two division superintendents had graduated from that obscure station, and the boys joked "Bill." "Are you in line?" they said. Bill was. "I expect to be superintendent in due time," he said in seriousness. Soon afterward he was made track master of the Northern Michigan railroad, now the Lansing branch. In quick succession he became acting superintendent of the Lansing division and assistant general superintendent respectively. Now he is general manager."

Will Make a New Record.

Within the next fortnight George Gould will make his annual inspection of the railway properties in which he is interested, and it is proposed by the Wabash officials to give him a ride over that line which will be a record breaker in the way of fast time. He will pass over the Detroit-St. Louis branch, and an effort will be made to cover the distance, 480 miles, in 480 minutes, including all stops. The train will be handled by the big Barnes engines, whose performances on the occasion of the general manager's inspection trip are still the subject of much favorable comment in railway circles.

An Obstreperous Passenger.

Conductor Breen, who had charge of Pennsylvania train No. 8 from Chicago to this city last night, had trouble with a well-dressed passenger, who had apparently imbibed too freely in the beverage that intoxicates. A lady on the train complained to the conductor that the passenger had insulted her. The conductor went to the man and told him to conduct himself in a gentlemanly manner, whereupon the fellow grew wild and wanted to kill somebody. He was hustled to the baggage car, where he was kept until this city was reached, when the trainmen turned him over to Captain Stoll. After the fellow quieted a little he was taken to the hotel and this morning placed on No. 6 and sent east. He lived in New York end was apparently a well-to-do citizen. He seemed ashamed of his conduct when he became sober.

The Wabash lines earned in the second week of November $284,599, an increase over the corresponding week of 1897 of $30,055.

J. W. Sunderland, caller at the east yards, was called to the country yesterday by a message stating that some of his relatives were sick.

W. H. Hayes, a Pittsburg yard conductor, is working again after a week's absence on account of the sickness of his wife. The lady is better.

F. Mennewisch, F. P. Colcester and C. Behn, all car builders, have reported for duty at the east shops, after being absent on account of accidents.

Omaha now has eight important railroads and within twelve months will have two more—the Illinois Central and the Chicago Great Western.

H. T. Porter has been appointed chief engineer of the Pittsburg, Bessemer and Lake Erie and will assume the duties of the office on December 1.

Engineers Theodore Titus and G. V. VanOrsdale, of the Pittsburg, are off duty—the former on account of sickness and the latter with an injured eye.

On Wednesday of last week the Black Diamond express on the Lehigh Valley road was hauled from Wilkesbarre to Buffalo, 271 miles, in 278 minutes.

C. M. Tindall, Nickel Plate brakeman, has gone to Latta to attend to some private business. He has some real estate interests in that part of the Buckeye state.

Henry Danmeyer reported for duty at the Pittsburg blacksmith shop this morning, after an absence of three or four days on account of sickness.

G. R. Hall, traveling freight agent of the Canadian Pacific, was calling upon Fort Wayne shippers yesterday.

Fred Hartman, of the electric works, has gone to Chicago to attend to some business affairs for the company.

Otis Surdan, a Grand Rapids brakeman, is kept from his duties on the road by the serious illness of some member of his family.

Under the new arrangement No. 3, on the Wabash, which leaves this city for the west at 8:15 p. m., carries a reclining chair car between Fort Wayne and Kansas City.

H. C. Klepper and Ed Seibold, boilermakers in the employ of the Wabash company, have gone to Denver, Ind., to put new flues in the boiler in the pumping station.

The Wabash expects to take 300 of our citizens to Huntington this evening to attend the Catholic fair. Provisions have been made for a great many more than that number.

Agents S. S. Shambaugh, of Ridgeville, and J. Bryson, of Decatur, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, arrived in the city this morning to attend the Masonic meetings.

Engineer Lee Larimore and Fireman A. Lawson are sick and Fireman D. W. Kintz is attending to some business which keeps him from his engine. All are Nickel Plate employes.

Chief Engineer Johnston and his assistants on Saturday completed their inspection of bridges and trestles on the Pennsylvania southwestern lines, a work they have been engaged in two weeks.

The employes of the Lake Erie and Western road have purchased a burial lot at Tipton, Ind., a division point, for burial of railroad men who die without known relatives. Two bodies already lie there.

J. M. Taylor yesterday received a telegram from Peru, informing him of the serious illness of his sister at that place. He left immediately for that city. Mr. Taylor is the night engineer at the Wabash shops.

Out of twenty-seven electric lines in the state of Connecticut, only ten have this year paid dividends, and some are so overbonded that, it is stated, they will have to be reorganized on a lower bonded basis.

Brakeman C. Bitner, of the Nickel Plate, who was taking a week's lay off to attend to some private business, reported for duty yesterday. Brakeman Harry Ransbarger, of the same road, is now taking a lay off.

A Pittsburg paper is authority for the statement that freight traffic on the Fort Wayne road is now the heaviest in its history, there being over 3,000 cars handled daily, against 2,400 in November of last year.

Frank Murphy, Nickel Plate engineer, went to Cleveland yesterday to see his father, who was severely injured by being thrown from his buggy. Mr. Murphy, sr., is chief of the Cleveland fire department.

Experts have been inspecting the Wheeling and Lake Erie, it is stated, in the interest of the Baltimore and Ohio syndicate, and this is cited as evidence that eventually the former will be in the Baltimore and Ohio system.

The Baltimore and Ohio management has largely increased the business over its Wheeling division by sending freights over that line via Bellaire instead of the Pittsburg and Western. The change is causing some speculation.

John Young, switchman in the down town yards of the Pittsburg, is working again after a five days' lay off to look after some private affairs. Switchman Friend, of the same yards, is taking a few days' off for the same purpose.

George Haverly, a Pittsburg shopman, is off duty on account of an accident. Yesterday the index and second finger of his right hand were cut and bruised between irons while he was operating the big steam shear in the 'smith shop.

Mr. Wood, who is connected with the freight department of the Pennsylvania road at Toledo, was in the city over night, leaving this morning over the Grand Rapids road, for his home. He was a resident of this city two or three years ago.

The annual meeting of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern will be held November 29, at which time William Green will be elected vice president. On December 1 he will retire from the position of general manager of the Baltimore and Ohio lines.

C. W. Arnold, a Pittsburg fireman, slipped on his engine as the train was passing Valparaiso last night, and fell against the side of the cab with the result that his breast and side were severely injured. He will be unable to work for some time.

Rhinesmith & Simonson will soon place the counters and office furniture in the new quarters of the Gazette, in the Elektron building. The lumber used in the construction of this furniture is the finest quarter-sawed oak and the design and workmanship are such as to reflect credit upon the men who are engaged in building it.

F. E. Long, conductor on the Nickel Plate, has reported for duty after being absent for a few days to attend the funeral of his father, J. S. Long, who was an old pioneer of Noble county, being eighty-one years of age. He was the father of fourteen children, forty grandchildren and twenty-seven great grandchildren. He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his departure.

Dr. E. H. Griswold, of Peru, one of the surgeons of the Wabash railway hospital at that point, is thought to be in a dangerous condition from blood poison, contracted while amputating the limb of a man who died a few weeks ago from that disease. Dr. Griswold is well known to all the Wabash shopmen and trainmen in this city and is held in high regard by them. They will be sorry to learn of his misfortune.

District Passenger Agent R. G. Thompson feels pretty jubilant over the heavy business in the passenger line that his company is receiving from this territory at present. No. 3, the westbound train, last night had twenty-five through passengers aboard when it pulled out of this station, included being a party of six hunters, headed by G. R. Wickwire, of Arcola, who were bound for Paragould, Ark. There were also other parties who purchased tickets to points in Kansas, Missouri and Arizona.

Notwithstanding the nearness of winter, there is considerable building in progress. Mullet & Haag have commenced work upon the dwelling house to be erected for Hon. William Shambaugh, on West Berry street, the same to cost about $4,000; Contractor Grotholman has a party of men at work upon the foundation for the Mordhurst house, on Berry and Fulton streets, and Paul Stock has commenced the erection of a fine house for himself in the south side. All these contracts will be crowded to completion as rapidly as possible.

An official of the Wabash says that the story about the Wabash purchasing the Grand Trunk's air line, running from Buffalo to Detroit was rather premature. "It would be a very valuable acquisition on the part of the Wabash," said he, "but I doubt if the time is ripe for the change. The Wabash has been hampered somewhat by occupying this line in conjunction with the foreign road. It's the same case of two families living in the same house and not agreeing. The air line is of little use to the Grand Trunk for through traffic, and the rent it receives from the Wabash, amounting to $275,000 per year, is a rich bonus."

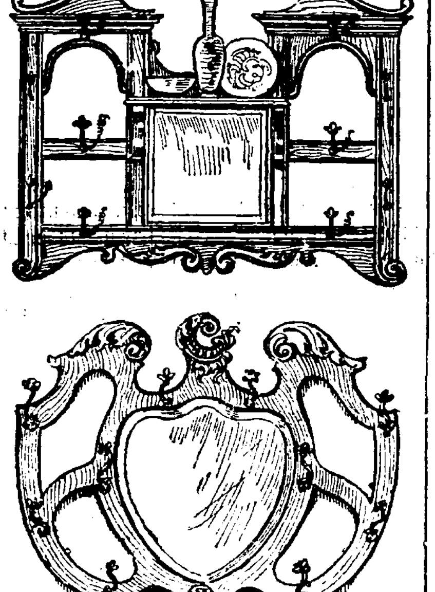
HALL FURNISHING.

A Convenient and Necessary Article. Pictures on the Staircase.

The beneficent conviction seems to be on the increase among householders that the average hall of a small dwelling becomes inconveniently crowded when a visitor, the hostess, a hatstand, two chairs, a perambulator and a bicycle meet in such a narrow rendezvous. As a rule, even the thickness of the wall-paper is an undesirable encroachment upon the precious room of most small halls, and certainly anything that unprofitably consumes the breathing space represents a blunder in the gentle art of house furnishing.



NEAT HATRACKS.

A hall six feet wide is convenient, and in this a hatstand may be reasonably situated, but no passage of much less width should be so incumbered.

Accommodation for hats and coats is always required near the front door in small houses, but this may be afforded by hatracks. Of course to attempt a very decorative effect is merely to court failure, for, of all things, coats and hats are least amenable to the charms of art. Usefulness and a certain amount of grace seem the best objective for our effects, and these appear to be achieved in the taking little pattern illustrated, whose many curving lines announce its Louis Quinze origin.

Other good designs there are which, beside the usual pegs and mirror, have a handy little drawer for gloves and brushes or a useful shelf. These are mostly in straight outlines.

It is becoming more and more the fashion, by the way, when the staircase is of good width to line its walls with pictures. On consideration the idea is a good one from other points of view than the artistic. The climb, particularly of a long unbroken staircase, is to many persons an affair of minutes, and it is not at all unpleasant to be cheered its length by some attractive pictures. In some houses there are a series of photographs along the stairs, those of celebrities being more often selected than the pictures of the friends of the family.

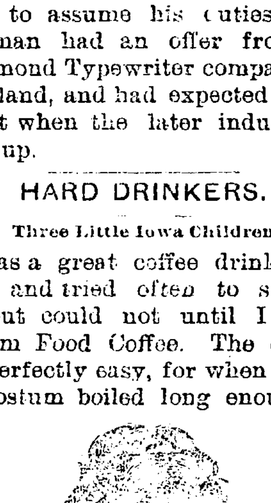
HARD DRINKERS.

Three Little Iowa Children.

I was a great coffee drinker for years, and tried often to stop its use, but could not until I found Postum Food Coffee. The change was perfectly easy, for when I had the Postum boiled long enough, it gave me as delicious a cup of coffee as I ever tasted in my life, and I could drink all I wanted of it without the heart trouble and dizzy headaches that had followed me for years. I was always tired when I was using coffe, and many times have been told if I would quit coffee I would get well, but how could I quit? I am wiser and healthier now, and would not begin to go back to the old-fashioned coffee, for I enjoy life too much when I am healthy.



MRS. GEO. L. SMITH,
Box 130, Shenandoah, Iowa.

I came pretty nearly being driven away from Postum the first time I tried it, but I determined to see that it was made right the next time, and found out that it must be boiled, and that's all there is to it. We have three little children, and they can have all the Postum coffee to drink they want, and they never fail to want it.

SPAIN MAY REFUSE.

Some Doubt of Her Ceding the Philippines.

May See Them Seized, Scorning to Take Money.

While Yielding to Force, Will Yet Protest.

Arbitration Must Be the Resort, Says a Paris Journal—Spain Can't Afford to Decline Cash.

PARIS, Nov. 22.—The Spanish peace commissioners last night telegraphed to Madrid the substance of the memorandum presented yesterday, and late in the evening they were discussing it among themselves.

As late as 1 o'clock this morning a Spanish commissioner affirmed that he and his colleagues did not know what to do regarding the American offer.

There is a difference of opinion among unofficial people near the commissions, but the prediction is made that Spain will decline the American offer of money, that she will refuse to cede the Philippines, and will say to the United States:

"You may take the archipelago because you have the power to do so. As you advance we will retire, protesting against greedy aggression. We will faithfully carry out our protocol pledges and leave Cuba and Porto Rico in your hands. You came here to engage in a discussion under the terms of the protocol, but you evidently meant, when drawing up that document, to provide a conference in which, though we differ, man to man, you proposed to announce at the proper time what you will do, whether we will agree to it or object. Such an attitude robs the conference of a negotiative character and sets up the United States for the dominant power, whose first purpose is to listen, but whose ultimate determination is to do its own will."

It is said today that Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, at the conference yesterday remarked, after having heard the American offer, that if the vital portion had been read the Spaniards could answer instantly, but as the memorandum was a very long one they would defer their answer until Wednesday, adding that it would be easily possible to make it within forty-eight hours.

On the other hand, it is said the Spaniards cannot justify themselves before their people by throwing away $20,000,000, added to the inevitable loss of the Philippine islands.

The Gaulois today says:

"The commissions being divided into an equal number of voices on the subject of the cession or the retention of the archipelago, a recourse to arbitration is absolutely necessary and legal. The Americans, nevertheless, refuse to do so and attribute to themselves sovereignty over the Philippines without the consent of the conference. They therefore, themselves, tear up the protocol they had imposed upon the vanquished and, to keep up appearances and soften in the eyes of the world the violence of their proceedings, they offer the absurd compensation of $20,000,000."

THEY LIKE IT.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Most of the afternoon newspapers comment upon and express satisfaction at the "open door" intentions of the United States in the Philippine islands.

The Pall Mall Gazette says:

"Whatever may happen in Porto Rico and eventually in the United States themselves, America's colonial policy in the Pacific is the 'open door.' It is a wise decision on every ground, in the interests of the prosperity of the Philippines themselves and as securing the good will of nations really friendly to America in the Pacific. The community of interests of the two English-speaking nations are thereby definitely assured."

A CABINET MEETING.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22—At the cabinet meeting today a brief telegram was read which had been sent from Paris by Day. It was substantially in accord with the newspaper reports of yesterday's proceedings, although no reference was made to excitement attending the meeting or to any open disagreement. It was stated that the next meeting would take place tomorrow. The cabinet discussed the matter and it was the judgment of the members that there would be at least one meeting after tomorrow even if the Spaniards have concluded to reject the Americans' proposal.

REPORT FROM BROOKE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The war department has received a dispatch from General Brooke about the reported disorders in the island of Porto Rico.

These reports were of such a character as to give the department some concern, as it was alleged that United States troops were making serious trouble for the inhabitants of the island.

General Brooke was cabled a statement of the case and requested to make an investigation. His reply is as follows:

"PONCE, Nov. 21.—Advices received daily from [illegible] and other troublesome regions. Disorders were reported from that part of the island immediately after it came into our possession, but I have had it thoroughly patrolled and am still patrolling it. Everything quiet for three or four weeks. Several bandits have been killed or wounded by patrols. Reports very much exaggerated. Every point has been heard from today and quiet and good order prevails. BROOKE."

IN A SMOKE HOUSE.

Such Was the Home of the Aged Mrs. Louise Klenke.

Startling Disclosures Made by an Investigation of the Humane Society—News in the Courts.

L. C. Schlandroff, humane officer, has reported startling disclosures in a case he was detailed to investigate. Mr. Schlandroff went to Maples yesterday and there found an aged lady named Louise Klenke living a miserable existence in a smokehouse on the premises of her son, Christian Klenke. The case has been acted on by the Humane society and application will be made before Judge O'Rourke for the appointment of a guardian for the old lady. Mrs. Klenke is sixty-eight years of age.

FILED AN APPEAL.

At Columbia City Saturday Attorney Fred Zollars filed an appeal bond in the matter of the Mud Run ditch. He is not satisfied with the allotment made by Surveyor Gillespie against him for the clearing of the ditch. The case is set for hearing at the February term of court.

GONE INTO BANKRUPTCY.

Perry Zimmerman, of this city, and Lee Dare, of Columbia City, have filed petitions in bankruptcy, with Referee A. A. Chapin, of this city.

The White National bank has filed a bond of $5,000 as a depository of bankrupt funds.

A DRUNKARD'S RIGHTS.

The appellate court finds that a man may lawfully get drunk at a social party, at home or at any place which is not public. Holding a dance at a private residence does not make it a public place. Even though a stand is established in the dooryard for the sale of ice cream and candy to the dancers and persons who hear of the "party" attend and are entertained, as well as those who are invited, the place is still not public, and if a man gets drunk at the dance he is not guilty of being found in a state of intoxication in a public place. The court so held in the case of the state against Sanford Tincher, appealed from Sullivan county. Tincher was arrested for being drunk at an ice cream social and dance at a farm house in that county. The circuit court discharged him and the appellate court affirmed the case.

NOTES.

Judge O'Rourke dismissed the following cases: Wm. Weis vs. the Olds Wagon works, and Mary A. Miller vs. J. B. White estate.

Edward J. Eisele et al., sues Fred M. Graffe et al., for $650. Breen and Morris are attorneys for the plaintiffs.

In the case of John H. Louer a decree quieting title to real estate was rendered by Judge Dawson against John H. McGraw.

John B. Kerr, receiver for the Abbott Mineral Well company, filed a final report in the superior court.

Judge Dawson decreed to the Tri-State Building and Loan association a judgment for $1,517.99, and to Chas. Pape a judgment for $1,209.68 against Chas. W. Cook.

The claim docket will be called in the circuit court next Friday and all claims not then proved will be dismissed.

The will of the late James Howes was probated today.

A ROUND ROBIN.

The Officers of the "President's Own" Asked to Resign.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 22.—A special to the Dispatch from Wooster, Ohio, says:

As the result of a secret meeting of the officers of the Eighth Ohio volunteers, the "President's own," a round robin, signed by all, was handed Colonel C. V. Hard, requesting him to resign. Lieutenant Colonel Charles Dick, congressman-elect, Quartermaster Kuhns and Adjutant A. W. Maynes are also asked to retire. Major E. C. Weybrecht presented the document to Colonel Hard, who demanded to know whether the request was because of inefficiency or of charges preferred or because he was a coward, to all of which a negative was returned.

Colonel Hard refused to resign and said those dissatisfied could take that step.

Desire for promotion on the part of subordinates is given by Colonel Hard's friends as the cause of the round robin.

OLD BOREAS ANGRY.

Northwest in the Freezing Grasp of Winter.

Cold Wave is Spreading All Over the Country.

A Freeze-Up Follows the Blizzard Across Indiana.

A Temperature of 26 Degrees Below Zero Registered at Some Points in the Far Northwest.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—The severe storm prevailing has moved northeastward and is central today over the upper lake region, attended with rain or snow over the western lake region, and the Ohio, Mississippi and Missouri valleys. The cold wave is moving forward in the rear of the storm, being felt today as far eastward as Lake Michigan, Illinois and Indiana.

The lowest temperature reported is in the extreme northwest, 26 below zero, and the zero temperature line runs southward as far as central Nebraska and western Iowa.

It is an unusually severe cold wave for this season of the year, but it is moderating somewhat in the north Rocky Mountain region. Very dangerous gales continue from the northwest over Lake Superior and Lake Michigan. The wind velocity at Duluth is fifty-six miles.

Temperatures today ranged from 10 below to 18 below in Minnesota and the Dakotas; 6 to 8 above in Iowa and Nebraska; 4 below to 4 above in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and Indiana; Ohio reports 4 to 18 above.

Every road running into Chicago from the west and northwest reports more or less delay to trains on account of the blizzard. The Chicago and Northwestern overland limited is twelve hours late, and nearly every train from the north is from one to three hours behind schedule time. Very few vessels have left Chicago since yesterday.

INTENSELY COLD.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 22.—Snow has ceased to fall at most points in the southwest and has been followed by the coldest weather of the season, the thermometer generally hovering around the zero mark and on the prairies registering from 2 to 4 degrees below. A high wind is drifting the snow badly and more or less seriously hampering the train and telegraph service. Reports of suffering to cattle are frequent.

The coal mines of Pittsburg, Kansas, and vicinity, already behind in filling their orders as a result of the recent Illinois and Colorado strikes, are having difficulty in supplying the necessities of the market.

SNOWSTORMS CONTINUE.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 22.—The snowstorm continued throughout the night and the wind is still busy piling up drifts.

Wires are working reasonably well and the main lines of the railroads are open, trains arriving only a few minutes late. Branch lines were not so fortunate, however, some of them being almost blocked in this state and Wisconsin.

Locally business was almost at a standstill because of the lack of street car facilities. On one of their busiest lines the street railway recently substituted electricity for cable system and this line, which formerly was available when the electric lines were stopped, is today knocked out. No cars are running in any part of the city.

BIG FIGHT TONIGHT.

Corbett and Sharkey to Pummel Each Other.

Both Pugilists Reported in Pink of Condition—Gotham Overflowing With Patrons of Pugilism.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Today this city is the rendezvous of thousands of men identified with pugilism, who come from all over the United States to watch James J. Corbett and Thomas Sharkey settle the question of fistic supremacy before the Lenox Athletic club tonight. The up town hotels are thronged with visitors and the trains arriving at the several depots brought contingents of sporting men who are all anxious to see the contest.

Corbett still holds his position as favorite in the betting, the Sharkey people getting 100 to 80 for their money whenever a wager is made.

Both pugilists are resting today, Corbett at his residence in this city and Sharkey at his training quarters in South Brooklyn.

The reports from both quarters are similar to those given out last night, which announced the men to be in splendid physical condition.

Each side seems to think its man invincible, but the majority opinion favors Corbett, who in the past has shown himself to be by far the cleverer fighter.

Many claim that Sharkey has improved wonderfully and none of them is more confident of the sailor's chances of victory than his manager and trainer, Tom O'Rourke. Speaking of his man today, O'Rourke said:

"Sharkey will be a surprise to many when he strips tonight. I tell you he has learned a great deal and is vastly improved. I am confident he will win."

Sharkey will remain at his Brooklyn quarters until about 1 o'clock this afternoon, when he will be driven to this city and put to bed at a hotel near the Lenox club house. It is expected that 10,000 persons will witness tonight's contest. The seating capacity of the big structure is about 7,600 and about one-third as many can have standing room.

The sales of seats up to the present has been enormous and all the best seats ranging in price from ten to twenty dollars each have been sold.

Admission to the building will cost $3, and these tickets will not be put on sale until the last moment.

The five and seven dollar seats are being bought rapidly today and by 6 o'clock tonight the speculators expect to get double prices for these paste-boards. The doors of the club house will be thrown open at 6 o'clock so that there will be very little crowding at the entrances.

RUNAWAY LADS.

Arrested by Detective Redmond and Held in Jail.

An Effort Made to Find Their Parents—A Drunk and Two Train Climbers Let Go.

This morning Detective Redmond, of the Pennsylvania company, brought up two white boys and one colored youth, whom he arrested in the railroad yards last night as they alighted from an incoming freight from the west. The trio were locked up at the police station and gave fictitious names. The two white lads, who were younger than their dusky companion, gave their ages as thirteen and fifteen, while the colored prisoner said he was "jest comin' twenty-two." His companions evidently recognized him as their leader, and as they were boys of evident respectability, the mayor issued an order to have the three prisoners held until an investigation can be made. It is believed that the lads were enticed away from home by the colored youth. Superintendent Gerding wrote to the authorities at Chicago, where the boys claim to live.

PRISONERS LET GO.

Two train jumpers arrested by Detective Dinger were let go. Jack Tomlison, arrested by Officer Ramy for drunkenness, was given a lecture and also released.

A BOGUS SOLDIER.

A weary looking man, whose appearance would indicate that he had lately emerged from the late Spanish-American war, has been working the citizens the last few days on a very old and often tried racket. The stranger, with his arm in a sling and his face painfully distorted, has been in the habit of approaching pedestrians and delivering a stereotyped oration about his awful suffering through the campaign of Santiago, and to emphasize his case he taps his "wounded" arm. With the shekels so gathered he fills himself with a very bad quality of whisky. The police have been notified to look out for the Santiago campaigner.

EAT AND BE MERRY.

That Will be the Happy Fate of Institution Children.

Six Hundred Pounds of Turkey for the Indiana School—A Feast Assured for the Orphans' Home.

King Turkey will have the place of honor at many feasts on Thanksgiving day but it is doubtful if he will cause greater joy or appease healthier appetites than at several of the children's institutions.

The Indiana School for Feeble Minded Youth leads the list for the magnitude of a Thanksgiving dinner. This morning Superintendent Johnson contracted with the Keystone grocery for six hundred pounds of turkey, which means about sixty birds.

The Allen County Orphans' Home will have several fine large turkeys and the little folks will have a great celebration. "Momma" Overmeyer has received a number of letters from her young charges, and all of them tell of things that the children are thankful for.

At the Reformed Orphans' Home and St. Vincents there will be unusual spreads, such as only Thanksgiving menus can produce.

With all of these dinners there will be no lack of cranberries, nuts and candies.

The "Manchester Martyrs."

In connection with the lecture to be given by Father M. J. Byrne tomorrow evening, to commemorate the execution of Allen, Larkin and O'Brien, the "Manchester Martyrs," there will be a musical program, as follows:

"Erin on the Rhine"	Adolph Schultz
"Kate O'Donoghue"	Alice Ryan
"The Exile's Dream"	Tillie Reilley
"Sweet Inisfallen"	Mrs. H. W. Applegate
Instrumental—Zaha[illegible]	Anna Schnieders

THE COUNTY'S POOR

A Visit to the Home for the Homeless.

A Party of Visitors Guests of Superintendent Felts.

Everything at the County Farm in Fine Condition.

The Farm Being Made to Produce a Rich Abundance—What the Year's Crops Amount to.

If there is one institution in Allen county that its citizens may well feel proud of it is the county asylum presided over by Superintendent Herman W. Felts and wife.

On invitation of the county commissioners several newspaper men and other citizens visited the asylum and were royally entertained by the superintendent and his charming wife today.

The party was composed of the following people: Mr. and Mrs. Captain Hettler, Sheriff and Mrs. A. E. Melching, Michael Baltes, Trustee M. F. Schmetzer, J. F. W. Meyer, A. Martin, A. J. Moynihan, of the Journal, Sam Moffat, of the News, Emil Miller, of the Gazette, and a representative of THE SENTINEL.

The visitors were shown through the handsome new residence recently built by the commissioners and now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Felts and help on the farm. The building makes a very pretty and cosy home.

The lower floor is used as the residence proper for the superintendent and his wife and the upper floor is occupied as sleeping apartments by the help. In the basement is the kitchen and store room.

Mr. and Mrs. Felts showed the visitors through the asylum proper and they were simply amazed at what they saw. Everything was neat and clean as a pin and everywhere there was system. Citizens, without paying a visit to the asylum, cannot realize what a magnificent institution it really is. At present there are 113 inmates, seventy-six men and thirty-seven women. They are kept entirely separate, each having attendants of their own sex. Most of the inmates are aged people without homes, but there are some who are of feeble mind and at present several who are of unsound mind. These latter are not dangerous, however. Many of them have been to the state asylums and there pronounced incurable, while three or four have been recently placed in the institution awaiting an opportunity to send them to the overcrowded state institution.

The dormitories on the second floor are kept in the best of condition, and steam heat is forced through the big structure to protect the inmates from the cold. It is necessary to keep the temperature somewhat warmer than in the average home for the reason that three-fourths of the inmates are aged people. THE SENTINEL reporter conversed with some of them and they all spoke highly of their treatment by Mr. and Mrs. Felts. They seem to appreciate, too, that they have a respectable home and there is not that often expressed feeling of shame that induced inmates to hide themselves from visitors. In fact, to the visitor, the asylum does not appear to be a charitable institution. Many of the inmates, while poor, are able to work and take a pride in assisting about the farm.

There are very few who do not do enough work during the year to pay for their care by the county.

In the hospital ward for men there are at present only three patients. There are the same number in the insane ward.

While the visitors were in the ladies' ward, Susie Blackburn entertained them by playing a march on the organ, which the commissioners have kindly provided for the ladies' enjoyment.

The inmates have better edibles than many families who do not think they are so very poor. Miss Mary Miller is the cook and when THE SENTINEL representative visited the kitchen she was cooking the following menu for dinner:

Fresh pork, sauer kraut, dumplings, Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, pickled beets and pumpkin pie. Tea was to be served also.

Several of the women are unable to come down stairs, and there is provided for them on the second floor a sitting room where they can sit and chat. One girl, a cripple, has crocheted and knitted many handsome articles which she has for sale, in an effort to pay a doctor bill, and hopes in this manner to raise enough money to go to Ann Arbor and have an operation performed.

The bread, the pies and all other pastry are baked in the asylum bakery. Vegetables in abundance are raised each year, the biggest expense to the county being the purchase of fresh beef and groceries. On the farm are raised all the pork that can be used, tons of garden stuff and thousands of melons and pumpkins.

The stock is fed from stuff raised on the farm and Mr. Felts has in use a feed-cutter of his own make, which gives the stock the best of chop.

There are fifteen or sixteen cows on the farm and it is unnecessary to purchase butter or milk. There is plenty of cold storage and everything used is fresh.

Scattered about the five wings of the asylum are as many different hose attached to the big pump, thus giving the best of fire protection. Stored away in the basement of the asylum are 1,100 cans of tomatoes and 600 quarts of other canned goods. Thousands of bushels of potatoes, apples and turnips are stored for the winter.

At the noon hour the visitors sat down to a delicious dinner, to which they all did ample justice, a fact that will be willingly attested by Sheriff Melching and Editor Moynihan. The newspaper men left the other visitors in complete possession of the institution at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

THE CROPS RAISED.

The following statement shows the various crops raised on the farm under the direction of Superintendent Felts, and the value of them at prevailing market prices:

After a slated program had been rendered a band of palefaces discoursed music to which the warriors and their friends danced. KENNEDY'S NO MORE

Fire Sweeps Away the Notorious Road House.

Blaze Started at Eleven O'clock This Morning.

The Building and Contents Totally Destroyed.

A Resort That Has Caused the Police More Trouble Than Any Other One Dive in the City—No Insurance.

At 11 o'clock this forenoon fire started in the notorious road house of Phil Kennedy, on the Huntington road, near Lindenwood cemetery, and the flames, aided by a brisk wind, made quick work of the building and almost everything it contained.

The blaze had its origin in a rear room upstairs, where the oil from a gasoline stove leaked and caught fire and speedily communicated to the woodwork.

The destructive element had taken a firm hold before the discovery was made and although the fire department was summoned, it was to late to save the building or contents. The only piece of furniture saved was a piano, and this was taken out only through the united efforts of several daring firemen. The building contained a bar and bar-room furniture and a quantity of beer and liquors, and the upstairs was furnished into bed-rooms. The loss is not covered by insurance and will amount to probably $1,500.

A GOOD RIDDANCE.

This wiping out of the Kennedy roadhouse so completely will be a surprise with some agreeable features in it. Since Kennedy took possession of the place some two years ago it has been an eyesore to the decent elements of the city, and a source of continual annoyance and harrassment to the police. It has baffled numerous efforts at a successful raiding, because spies were always kept on the lookout for the approach of the patrol wagon. In its brief history under Kennedy the place accomplished enough wickedness for a decade. While there are few persons in this city who are of heart to rejoice over material losses that may come to any man, there are still fewer who will be able to find in their hearts anything that borders upon regret that this evil place has been obliterated. It is a sort of providential riddance.

TUNNEL TALK.

Committee Meets But Postpones Action for a Week.

Will Confer With the Railroad Officials in the Meantime—City Wants Tunnel at Harrison Street.

The special committee to whom was referred the matter of putting a tunnel under the railroad tracks of the Pennsylvania and Wabash companies, met last evening to consider the matter, but action was postponed for a week to give the officials of the railroad companies an opportunity to talk with the committee. The Wabash wants the tunnel at Clinton street, and the the Pennsylvania wants it at Harrison. The city favors Harrison, and a strong effort will be made to put the tunnel there, it being the impression in municipal circles that the objections of the Wabash people will be satisfactorily overcome. The tunnel will be built at either of the streets named.

Is an "open door" policy better for the Philippines than for the United States?

The formation of a milling trust need rouse no apprehension. To make good bread, it is well known, flour must be raised.

Already the evils of absorbing too much Spanish territory are beginning to show up. Denver is making preparations to have a public bull-fight.

That inventor Keely did not spend his efforts in vain is proved by the announcement that his widow has a chronicle of his doings which embraces 2,000 pages of manuscript. It is surely a great secret that cannot be contained in smaller bulk.

Already the British newspapers have expressed their hearty approval of the "open door" policy the United States has announced for the commerce of the Philippines. As Great Britain already controls about four-fifths of the Philippine trade and expects to keep it, she is in very gay humor over the situation.

Nickum, the perpetual light man, of Logansport, has been indicted by the federal grand jury at Indianapolis, charged with having engaged in fraudulent practices with respect to his invention. Mr. Nickum may cite the experience of the late Mr. Keely, of motor fame, who was frequently arrested charged with fraud, but he should recollect that the Keely motor didn't "mote" any more than the Nickum light illuminates.

Judging from the tone of our exchanges it looks very much as though Judge R. S. Taylor, of this city, is daily gaining strength in his senatorial candidacy. Judge Taylor is recognized as personally and intellectually far and away the strongest candidate now spoken of and this fact is doing him much more good, we believe, than opposing politicians can do him harm. Fort Wayne, Allen county and, indeed, all northern Indiana should and we think soon will be unanimous in the demand that Judge Taylor be made the next United States senator from Indiana.

A more serious aspect is imparted to the charges against Senator Quay by the bill of indictment returned by the grand jury. He is, with his son, Richard, and Benjamin Haywood, former state treasurer of Pennsylvania, formally indicted on charge of conspiracy to unlawfully use in stock speculation monies deposited in the wrecked People's bank of Philadelphia. When he and his associates were arrested on the eve of an election closing a campaign in which Senator Quay had been most bitterly antagonized by a hostile faction of his own party, it was easy to charge the whole affair to politics and easy enough to make many good and sensible people believe that was all there was in the matter. But now comes the grand jury with true bills against the senator and his son and Haywood. It is hardly to be thought with reason that politics cut any figure in the jury room. Evidence of a positive and grave nature must have been presented to the jury. Public opinion will not be hasty to condemn the senator, nor will it acquit him on his own denial. Quay is in a tight hole and his progress up and out of it will be watched with interest.

THERE WAS NO RUPTURE.

Happily the report cabled yesterday that the peace negotiations in Paris had been ruptured by the withdrawal of the Spanish plenipotentiaries from further conference proves to have been false. The French cable company, it seems, was imposed upon by a forged dispatch sent in the name of the Associated Press by unscrupulous speculators to promote stock-jobbing schemes.

The United States yesterday demanded of Spain the entire Philippine archipelago and made the Madrid representatives a tender of $20,000,000 indemnity for a treaty cession of the islands. Spain, though much distressed, evidently, by the force of circumstances which oblige her to submit to the terms of what is practically this government's ultimatum, will accept this proposition, no doubt, as the best she can do. Other details of the pending treaty are by comparison of small moment and with the vexed question of the Philippines now eliminated from the conference, the completion of the terms of peace ought to be brought about with considerable dispatch.

The wisdom of the new radical policy laid out by the administration for this republic is a concern that will implore the profound and patriotic attention of all the people. Problems of the utmost gravity are presented and never have the people been face to face with a question possessing two sides so radically different. The slave question, with its seven decades of national turmoil and the fratricidal war which was its fruit, was in some respects a smaller question than the proposed policy of territorial expansion. That involved only domestic conditions and domestic consequences. The present question is international, world-big, and, though opening a wide vista of national possibilities alluring and majestic, is fraught with perils no patriot should seek to conceal from his own understanding nor gloss over to the view of others.

A FRAGMENT.

Lines inscribed by Hon. Robert C. Bell, of Fort Wayne, to his friend, James Whitcomb Riley.

And hope and fear are ever near,
The one with light, the other gloom,
Yet come what may, in night or day,
With winter's frost or summer's bloom,
The bright, glad past is ours at last,
With all its memories dear.

Let's bear the load o'er dreary road,
Though done with bleeding feet;
The good God knows our joy and woes,
Our faults and failings all;
How weak our wills, how great our ills,
How prone we are to fall.

THE NOBLE RITE.

Semi-Annual Reunion of the Scottish Rite.

The Fall Convocation Opens This Afternoon With a Large Class—Will be Continued Tomorrow.

The Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, Valley of Fort Wayne, including the counties of Allen, Adams, Dekalb, Elkhart, Huntington, Kosciusko, Lagrange, Noble, Steuben, Wabash and Whitley, this afternoon opened the fall convocation to confer the degrees 4th to 14th inclusive. There is a large class of candidates.

It is in the nature of a reunion, this being the second of the year. Thrice Potent Grand Master William Geake, 33d degree, in his announcement, says: "The growth of the rite continues. KEELY'S SECRET.

In a Manuscript of 2,000 Pages He Describes His Mysterious "Motor."

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 22.—B. L. Ackermann, president of the Keely Motor company, arrived here from New York in response to a telegram from Mrs. Keely. He said this afternoon: "Mr. Keely's secret did not die with him. On my arrival at Mrs. Keely's house I found her so prostrated that she was unable to more than state that that Mr. Keely had left in her possession a manuscript of 2,000 pages, which explains the whole system and the work it has done.

"I have been closely associated with Mr. Keely in his work for twenty-five years and I was among the first to see the value of his plans. As a mechanical engineer I have frequently examed his machines and I have often discussed his experiments with him. Therefore, today I have greater faith than I ever held in the practical value of his discoveries."

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE.

Meeting to be Held Under the Auspices of the Fort Wayne Missionary Union.

On Tuesday, the 29th inst., a conference will be held at the West Jefferson street Church of Christ under the auspices of the Fort Wayne Missionary Union, and at that time topics of interest to all missionary workers in the city will be discussed. The society has secured the presence of Rev. McLean, a well known missionary, who has just returned from a campaign in Cuba, and his talk will describe the situation in that country as he found it. Mr. McLean is a forcible talker and every person interested in missionary work will want to hear him.

The Isaac Knapp Dental coterie has received from Dr. G. V. Black, of the Northwestern university, an acceptance of an invitation to come to Fort Wayne and address the dentists some time within the next two weeks. Dr. Black is an eminent member of the profession and has charge of the dental department of the university. He will be the guest of the Isaac Knapp Dental coterie while in the city and his address is to be given under the auspices of that organization.

Rain Quenches Prairie Fires.

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 22.—The most disastrous prairie fire that ever ravaged the Indian territory has been brought to an abrupt stop by heavy rains. The fire started two weeks ago in Chickasaw and Choctaw Nation and it is estimated that property valued at $250,000 has been destroyed. An area of seventy-five miles square was burned over.

Missouri Farmers Frozen to Death.

Springfield, Mo., Nov. 22—George and Ed Cotter, farmers, were found frozen to death near Ash Grove today. Yesterday they went to Ash Grove and drank considerable. They started to their farms and were caught in the blizzard. It is supposed they fell from their horses.

MANY PRAISES

Words of Appreciation From Y. M. C. A. Delegates.

A General Expression of Fort Wayne's Warm Hospitality on the Occasion of the Recent Convention.

J. W. Burns, secretary of the R. R. Y. M. C. A., is daily in receipt of letters from various parts of the country expressing an appreciation of Fort Wayne's warm hospitality upon the occasion of the recent Ninth International conference of the railroad department, Y. M. C. A., and commenting on the success of that meeting. As showing the drift of these letters The Sentinel publishes a few of them, as follows:

Selma, Alabama, Journal: "Mr. Oldham was seen by a reporter this morning, and he says that the south, with all its famous hospitality, must certainly yield to Fort Wayne, for such attention and lavish hospitality was never bestowed in greater measure to any visitors than to the delegates to the International Conference."

Western Christian Advocate: "It was a grand sight to see so many men representing all departments of railroad activity so earnestly engaged in religious work."

Baltimore Railroad Men: "The delegates report a splendid convention and great enthusiasm. It was the largest conference of the kind ever held."

B. F. Stephens, Elkhart, Ind.: "I must express my thanks for the excellent entertainment you provided and appreciate your efficient efforts which made it possible to have so grand and successful a meeting."

Augustus Nash, Warren, Ohio: "Was never at a conference that impressed me more."

W. G. Chamberlain, jr., Louisville, Ky.: "I wish to extend my very sincere thanks for the kind entertainment and cordial hospitality extended to myself and fellow delegates. It is with gratitude that I realize what a privilege we have enjoyed, and how much we are indebted to your association for making our stay so pleasant and profitable."

The "Young Man," Louisville, Ky.: "Far exceeded any gathering it has been the privilege of our delegates to attend."

The Lackawanna "Bell," Scranton, Pa.: "The delegates report a grand meeting."

ST. MARY'S CLOSED.

Board of Health Issues the Order This Morning.

Prevalence of Diphtheria Among the Pupils the Cause—Request to Have Doors Closed Two Weeks.

This morning the city board of health issued an order to Father Oechtering to close the St. Mary's school on account of the prevalence of diphtheria among the pupils of the school. There are six pupils down with the disease and it is feared that others have been exposed and that by continued school sessions the dreaded infection will be carried farther. The cases reported are at the following locations: 29 Schick street, 31 Walton avenue, 101 Maumee avenue, 307 East Wayne street and corner of Lafayette and Jefferson streets. The request of the health board was readily acceded to by Father Oechtering, who is certainly anxious to prevent the spread of diphtheria among the children under his charge. The school will probably be closed two weeks.

ONLY ONE OTHER CASE.

The health board only has one other case on hand besides the St. Mary's pupils. There are three homes in the city where scarlet fever cards are up.

A GREAT REMEDY.

For Sufferers From Piles.

Dr. Redmond, a specialist in the study and treatment of piles and rectal diseases, recently stated that the Pyramid Pile Cure, the new discovery for the cure of piles, was the most remarkable remedy he had ever seen or tried in one respect; and that was the instant relief experienced in all cases, no matter how severe, from the moment the remedy was applied. This was the more surprising to him because he had carefully analyzed the the preparation and no trace of opium, cocaine or similar poison could be detected.

Physicians look with great favor upon the Pyramid Pile Cure, because it is rapidly taking place of surgical operations and because it is so simple, so easily applied and contains no mineral or other poisons so commonly used in cures.

Dr. Esterbrook reports that the Pyramid Pile Cure not only cures the various forms of piles, but never fails to give immediate relief on the first application, no matter how severe the pain or discomfort may be.

People who have suffered from piles for years are often astonished at the instant relief experienced from the first application. Another important advantage is the fact that any one can use the remedy without detention from business or interference with daily occupation. Sold by druggists at 50 cents per package.

Send to Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich, for free book on cause and cure of piles.

THE CASE OF KILMER.

A Northern Indiana Normal Student Meets With Foul Play.

Young Missourian Found Dead and His Family Confident He Was Murdered —Northern Indiana Notes.

Valparaiso, Ind., Nov. 22.—The supposed suicide of Bert Kimler, of Briscoe, Mo., whose dead body was found in the woods, near this city, a week ago, may prove a case of foul play. Kimler was visiting at his home, and returned to this city to attend the Normal school, and it is now learned that he was presented with $4,000 in cash by his father before leaving, and should have had at the time of his death about $600 left out of his travelling expenses.

He was in Chicago about two hours before arriving here, and it is now thought he was followed here and robbed. His father is here investigating, and does not put much credence in the rough-on-rats boxes found in his pocket, nor the note pinned to his vest, that offered evidence of his suicide. Young Kimler was of a cheerful disposition and had about $2,300 to his credit in bank, besides the $4,000 presented to him a few days ago.

A NERVY LITTLE GIRL.

She Falls Into a Well and Keeps Afloat Until Rescued.

Waterloo, Ind., Nov. 22.—The five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myrtle, of Chicago, who, with her mother, is visiting the family of John Rohm in West Waterloo, while playing about the premises yesterday afternoon, fell into a well twenty feet deep, which contained several feet of water. The little girl was taught to swim last summer and she was able to keep afloat. In the meantime the alarm was sounded and the mother, who was not much frightened, let down a bucket attached to a clothes line, telling her child to cling to it while she drew her up. The little girl was unable to hold fast and she dropped back into the water when half way to the surface, but she kept afloat until help came and she was rescued. In the first fall she received a scalp wound by striking the stone wall. She was also chilled by the water, but no serious consequences resulted.

Overdosed With Medicine.

Laporte, Ind., Nov. 22.—Michael Blue was found dead near Bremen, and his death was believed to have resulted from heart disease. An investigation shows, however, that death was caused by taking too much medicine, which had been prescribed for a chronic ailment. His long-continued ill health and despondency gave credence to the theory of suicide.

A Law Partnership.

Lagrange, Ind., Nov. 22.—Ex-Senator James S. Drake, of this city, of the law firm of Drake & Merritt, has formed a partnership with Charles W. Miller, at Goshen, succeeding Judge Francis E. Baker, in the well known firm of Baker & Miller. The Hon. F. D. Merritt, who has been a partner with Mr. Drake since 1879, will continue the practice of law in this city.

HOLDS FIRST PLACE.

First Baptist Church of Fort Wayne Leads in Indiana.

Centennial Celebration Begins at the Baptist Tabernacle This Afternoon—A Meeting Tonight.

The Baptist churches of Indiana today celebrate the centennial of the existence of the church, and the Baptist Tabernacle of this city—Pastor Henson's church—observing the anniversary on a big scale. At 3 o'clock this afternoon the pastors and members of the Fort Wayne conference held a conference and at 7:30 this evening the centennial service will be held.

There is no formally arranged program for the meeting tonight, but there will be addresses, music and general discussion, followed by an "acquaintance social," giving all an opportunity to get together and have a talk. The principal addresses of the evening will be given by Rev. C. M. Carter, pastor of the First Baptist church, at Muncie; Rev. Albert Ogle, of Indianapolis, and Rev. L. L. Henson. Rev. Carter is one of the best known Baptists in the state, having for several years been president of the Indiana Baptists' convention. Rev Ogle is superintendent of the mission work in the state.

One hundred years ago today in the village of Silver Creek, a few miles north of Louisville, the first Baptist congregation in the state of Indiana was organized. Today there are 523 Baptist churches in the state, the aggregate membership of which is over 55,000. Fort Wayne boasts of the largest congregation in the state, the membership of the Baptist Tabernacle, of which the Rev. L. L. Henson is pastor, numbering over one thousand.

THE CHURCH IN FORT WAYNE.

The history of the Baptist church in Fort Wayne dates back to 1820, when the Rev. Isaac McCoy, under the appointment of the Baptist triennial convention, came as a missionary to the Miami and Pottawamie Indian tribes, whose reservations were located in this vicinity. On August 3, 1822, a regular church was organized. A scourge of malarial fever retarded the growth of the church at this time and it was not until 1837, when the present congregation was organized, that any progress was made.

On January 14, 1837, a number of regular Baptists from different churches, who had moved from different parts to Fort Wayne and vicinity, convened in the brick school house and on Sunday, April 16, 1837, the church was duly organized, the hand of fellowship being extended by Elder Frye and the sermon preached by Elder Moore. On March 1, 1869, the Rev. J. R. Stone, D. D., was installed as pastor of the church. He resigned to accept a call from Lansing, Mich., where after a brief pastorate he laid down this life's work.

The Rev. Stephen A. Northrop, D. D., who resigned as pastor July 7, 1895, succeeded the Rev. Dr. Stone as pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle. When he was succeeded by the present incumbent, Rev. L. L. Henson, the church boasted of 855 members. During his pastorate, the fiftieth anniversary of the church was celebrated, April 16, 1887, being known as "Jubilee Day." The increasing membership necessitated enlarging the church building, and on September 29th the corner stone for the present building was laid, the improvements made aggregating a cost of $8,000.

Rev. Llewellyn L. Henson, the present pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, accepted the call made pursuant to the resignation of Rev. Stephen A. Northrop, D. D., and was duly installed as pastor the first Sunday in October, 1895. As has been previously stated, there were 855 members when he assumed the pastorate, and today his flock numbers over a thousand.

The officers of the church are men of the highest business and social standing. The board of deacons comprises Messrs. William Carter, chairman; James A. Gavin, H. A. Philley, W. A. Rose, George Ellenwood, A. H. Polhamus, S. F. Bowser, A. C. Beaver, John Currier and C. M. La Rue. On the board of trustees the following gentlemen serve: Messrs. John Ferguson, chairman; O. N. Heaton, Eli S. Philley, Allen Zollars and Louis Diether. The other officers of the church are: George Miller, clerk; F. C. Cratsley, treasurer; George Kuntz, chief usher; John Counihan, sexton; A. H. Polhamus, superintendent of Sunday school; S. F. Bowser, superintendent of the Baptist Brotherhood; Mrs. Gus Currier, president Ladies' society; Mrs. J. B. Pellens, president Ladies' Missionary society; Charles A. Hood, president of the Baptist Young People's Union of America, and Miss Irma Meisker, president of Junior B. Y. P. U.

When the Rev. L. L. Henson assumed the pastorate of the church, there were but two Baptist missions in the city, one in South Wayne, and the other on the north side. At the present time there are six as follows: South Wayne mission, A. C. Beaver, superintendent of Sunday school; Mrs. F. C. Woods, president Ladies' Missionary society. North Side mission, F. Lichtenwalter, superintendent of Sunday school; Mrs. C. Josse, president of Mission Builders. East Side mission, Dr. M. Harrod, superintendent. Hanna Street mission, C. M. LaRue, superintendent. Bethel mission, Thomas Potter, superintendent. Lakeside mission, F. C. Cratsley, superintendent.

AN OPERATION AVOIDED.

Mrs. Rosa Gaum Writes to Mrs. Pinkham About it. She Says:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I take pleasure in writing you a few lines to inform you of the good your Vegetable Compound has done me. I cannot thank you enough for what your medicine has done for me; it has, indeed, helped me wonderfully. For years I was troubled with an ovarian tumor, each year growing worse, until at last I was compelled to consult with a physician. He said nothing could be done for me but to go under an operation.

In speaking with a friend of mine about it, she recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, saying she knew it would cure me. I then sent for your medicine, and after taking three bottles of it, the tumor disappeared. Oh! you do not know how much good your medicine has done me. I shall recommend it to all suffering women.—Mrs. Rosa Gaum, 720 Wall St., Los Angeles, Cal.

The great and unvarying success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in relieving every derangement of the female organs, demonstrates it to be the modern safeguard of woman's happiness and bodily strength. More than a million women have been benefited by it.

Every woman who needs advice about her health is invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass.

A desperate looking man, with two drawn revolvers, is not a pleasant person to meet at a lonely cross-road. Most men will go a long way out of their road to avoid such an encounter. The same men will recklessly neglect their health and court death in the guise of consumption or some other equally fatal disease. One-sixth of all the deaths each year are due to this most fatal of maladies.

Until very recent years, consumption was considered absolutely incurable. It is now known to be curable. During the past thirty years it has been demonstrated that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease before the lungs are too much wasted, also bronchitis, asthma, laryngitis and all diseases of the air-passages. It acts directly on the lungs, driving out all impurities and disease germs. It soothes the cough, facilitates expectoration, thus thoroughly clearing the lungs. It purifies and enriches the blood and tears down, carries off and excretes old, inert, half-dead tissues, replacing them with the new, firm, muscular tissues of health. It is the great appetite sharpener, blood-maker, flesh-builder, nerve-tonic and restorative. Thousands who had been given up to die have been restored to complete, robust health by this marvelous medicine. Do not buy from unscrupulous dealers who try to force upon you something beside what you ask for. There is nothing to take the place of it, or, which is "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

"I had the grip, which left me feeling miserable—no strength and a cough," writes Mrs. C. Maynard, of East Lyme, New London Co., Conn. "As some of my family died with consumption, I was frightened. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. After taking the second bottle I felt much better, and am now well."

HOW IT HAPPENED.

Conductor Quick Tells the Story of the Explosion.

Had Plenty of Water and Only 130 Pounds of Steam—Nickel Plate Officials Here.

The accident at Converse, Ohio, last Sunday morning, which resulted in the loss of one life and the maiming of three other persons, is an interesting subject for conversation in railway circles. Boiler explosions on railways are of such rare occurrence that when an accident of that character does happen, railway men are deeply interested in it and make an effort to discover the cause. The one on the Erie road Sunday was the most disastrous of the several that have occurred recently, and on that account, perhaps, is attracting an unusual amount of attention. The unfortunate engine was 709, recently rebuilt and its number changed from 319. Because of the many accidents this engine has met with it was considered a "Jonah" by the enginemen, and it is said that some of them were afraid to take it out under the old number and on this account the change was made. The two most serious wrecks this locomotive had prior to the one at Converse were at Markle and Wilders. The story of the explosion, as told by Conductor Quick to a reporter of the Huntington News-Democrat, is as follows:

"We heard at Lima that train No. 90 had killed four horses between Spencerville and Converse and were all on the lookout for the spot upon which they met their death. Dave was standing on the gangway between the engine boiler and the tank, when I last looked at him. I had just turned around and was looking out of the window when I felt the engine give a lung upward. My first thought was that an air hose had burst, but as soon as the engine came down on the track again I knew that she had blown up. The first thing I then did was to look back to see if the cars in the train were coming up over the tank and the next thought was to escape. The front pony trucks of the engine, when it came down after the explosion, lit on the track, but the drivers were off on the ties. The train ran about six car lengths after the explosion before it stopped. When it stopped the engine began to quiver then started to tip over on the fireman's side, the side I was on. Up until that time I had been unable to get out of the engine cab, but when she went to fall over, I succeeded in getting my foot on the window, jumping out on the ground just in time, for before I had hardly touched the ground the engine was on her side. Engineer Shurtleff, when the explosion occurred, was thrown forward and went out through the cab door leading out on the running board. When the engine turned it threw Mr. Shurtleff clear over the top of the cab, alighting just a few feet from me. We both were badly frightened and I felt awfully sick at my stomach as soon as I had regained my senses.

"Frank Smith, my brakeman, was standing on the engineer's side and he was thrown back over the tender and lit in the ditch. His injuries consisted of some very bad scalds, bruises and several large holes in the back of his head. Smith is the worst hurt of we three, as his wounds are such that will take some time to heal. Poor Dave Little was the most unfortunate of us all. As before stated, he was standing in the gangway and had just opened the firebox door to put in some more coal when the concussion occurred. No one knows how he met his death, as there was no living eyewitness, but it is believed by my entire crew that he was stooping down to put some coal in the firebox when she 'let go' and that the force of the steam and water threw him clear over the tank and he either fell down between the first car (which was a refrigerator) and engine or was blown clear over that car and lit between the second car, which was a gondola, loaded with coal, and the first car. As soon as Shurtleff and I were able, we began a search for Dave. Under the rear end of the coal car I found him, almost completely buried with coal, which had been thrown out by the sudden stopping of the train. He was rolled up in a ball and every bit of his clothing had either been blown off or torn off of him, for when we found him there was nothing on him at all. He was not badly mangled, but had been scalded and burned fearfully, his entire body giving evidence that he was horribly burned. It is my opinion that he never knew what had killed him.

"In an incredibly short time a great crowd of farmers had arrived on the scene and they set at work to dig the poor fellow out from under the car. Their task was finished at 12 o'clock. He was placed on a cot and brought to Ohio City by the engine pulling train 82. We, Shurtleff and myself, were driven in a wagon by an accommodating farmer to Elgin, where we made a report. Brakeman Smith was placed in a buggy and also taken to Elgin."

President Canniff Here.

President Canniff, of the Nickel Plate, was in the city an hour today, coming in on a special from the east. He was accompanied by General Superintendent A. W. Johnston, Motive Power Superintendent John McKinzie, Chief Engineer G. W. Vaughan, Superintendent C. D. Gorham and several other officials. The party is out on an inspection trip. Concerning Mr. Canniff, the Laporte Argus of a recent date had the following to say: "Superintendent Canniff, of the Lake Shore, is one of the very few who have acquired a high position in railroad life in recent years without being a relative of the railroad royal family. Canniff began his railroad career at Pittsford, where he sawed wood in the depot. While employed there he learned telegraphing and railroad business. His first post was at Trenton, on the Detroit branch. When the Union Pacific was opened he took a station at Lone Tree, Neb. He thought the country was rather new and returned to the Lake Shore. He was made station agent at Salem Crossing, now Otis, Ind. Two division superintendents had graduated from that obscure station, and the boys joked "Bill." "Are you in line?" they said. Bill was. "I expect to be superintendent in due time," he said in seriousness. Soon afterward he was made track master of the Northern Michigan railroad, now the Lansing branch. In quick succession he became acting superintendent of the Lansing division and assistant general superintendent respectively. Now he is general manager."

Will Make a New Record.

Within the next fortnight George Gould will make his annual inspection of the railway properties in which he is interested, and it is proposed by the Wabash officials to give him a ride over that line which will be a record breaker in the way of fast time. He will pass over the Detroit-St. Louis branch, and an effort will be made to cover the distance, 480 miles, in 480 minutes, including all stops. The train will be handled by the big Barnes engines, whose performances on the occasion of the general manager's inspection trip are still the subject of much favorable comment in railway circles.

An Ill-tempered Passenger.

Conductor Breen, who had charge of Pennsylvania train No. 8 from Chicago to this city last night, had trouble with a well-dressed passenger, who had apparently imbibed too freely in the beverage that intoxicates. A lady on the train complained to the conductor that the passenger had insulted her. The conductor went to the man and told him to conduct himself in a gentlemanly manner, whereupon the fellow grew wild and wanted to kill somebody. He was hustled to the baggage car, where he was kept until this city was reached, when the trainmen turned him over to Captain Stoll. After the fellow quieted a little he was taken to the hotel and this morning placed on No. 9 and sent east. He lived in New York and was apparently a well-to-do citizen. He seemed ashamed of his conduct when he became sober.

General and Local News.

The Electric corporation this morning shipped two motors to Mexico.

John Collins, steam fitter at the east car shop, is off duty on account of sickness.

Henry L. Bly, night yardmaster of the Pittsburg, is off duty on account of sickness.

Nickel Plate Conductor William Smart is hunting in the vicinity of Continental, Ohio.

On account of the illness of his wife, Nickel Plate Switchman C. Weaver has been unable to work for a few days.

The Wabash lines earned in the second week of November $244,399, an increase over the corresponding week of 1897 of $30,056.

J. W. Sunderland, caller at the east yards, was called to the country yesterday by a message stating that some of his relatives were sick.

W. H. Hayes, a Pittsburg yard conductor, is working again after a week's absence on account of the sickness of his wife. The lady is better.

F. Mennewisch, F. P. Colcester and C. Behn, all car builders, have reported for duty at the east shops, after being absent on account of accidents.

Omaha now has eight important railroads and within twelve months will have two more—the Illinois Central and the Chicago Great Western.

H. T. Porter has been appointed chief engineer of the Pittsburg, Bessemer and Lake Erie and will assume the duties of the office on December 1.

Engineers Theodore Titus and G. V. VanOrsdale, of the Pittsburg, are off duty—the former on account of sickness and the latter with an injured eye.

On Wednesday of last week the Black Diamond express on the Lehigh Valley road was hauled from Wilkesbarre to Buffalo, 271 miles, in 273 minutes.

C. M. Tindall, Nickel Plate brakeman, has gone to Latty to attend to some private business. He has some real estate interests in that part of the Buckeye state.

Henry Dannoyer reported for duty at the Pittsburg blacksmith shop this morning, after an absence of three or four days on account of sickness.

G. R. Hall, traveling freight agent of the Canadian Pacific, was calling upon Fort Wayne shippers yesterday.

Fred Hartman, of the electric works, has gone to Chicago to attend to some business affairs for the company.

Otis Surdan, a Grand Rapids brakeman, is kept from his duties on the road by the serious illness of some member of his family.

Under the new arrangement No. 3, on the Wabash, which leaves this city for the west at 8:15 p. m., carries a reclining chair car between Fort Wayne and Kansas City.

H. C. Klepper and Ed Seibold, boilermakers in the employ of the Wabash company, have gone to Denver, Ind., to put new flues in the boiler in the pumping station.

The Wabash expects to take 300 of our citizens to Huntington this evening to attend the Catholic fair. Provisions have been made for a great many more than that number.

Agents S. S. Shambaugh, of Ridgeville, and J. Bryson, of Decatur, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, arrived in the city this morning to attend the Masonic meetings.

Engineer Lee Larimore and Fireman A. Lawson are sick and Fireman D. W. Kintz is attending to some business which keeps him from his engine. All are Nickel Plate employes.

Chief Engineer Johnston and his assistants on Saturday completed their inspection of bridges and trestles on the Pennsylvania southwestern lines, a work they have been engaged in two weeks.

The employes of the Lake Erie and Western road have purchased a burial lot at Tipton, Ind., a division point, for burial of railroad men who die without known relatives. Two bodies already lie there.

J. M. Taylor yesterday received a telegram from Peru, informing him of the serious illness of his sister at that place. He left immediately for that city. Mr. Taylor is the night engineer at the Wabash shops.

Out of twenty-seven electric lines in the state of Connecticut, only ten have this year paid dividends, and some are so overbonded that, it is stated, they will have to be reorganized on a lower bonded basis.

Brakeman C. Bitner, of the Nickel Plate, who was taking a week's lay off to attend to some private business, reported for duty yesterday. Brakeman Harry Bausbarger, of the same road, is now taking a lay off.

A Pittsburg paper is authority for the statement that freight traffic on the Fort Wayne road is now the heaviest in its history, there being over 3,000 cars handled daily, against 2,400 in November of last year.

Frank Murphy, Nickel Plate engineer, went to Cleveland yesterday to see his father, who was severely injured by being thrown from his buggy. Mr. Murphy, sr., is chief of the Cleveland fire department.

Experts have been inspecting the Wheeling and Lake Erie, it is stated, in the interest of the Baltimore and Ohio syndicate, and this is cited as evidence that eventually the former will be in the Baltimore and Ohio system.

The Baltimore and Ohio management has largely increased the business over its Wheeling division by sending freights over that line via Bellaire instead of the Pittsburg and Western. The change is causing some speculation.

John Young, switchman in the down town yards of the Pittsburg, is working again after a five days' lay off to look after some private affairs. Switchman Friend, of the same yards, is taking a few days' off for the same purpose.

George Haverly, a Pittsburg shopman, is off duty on account of an accident. Yesterday the index and second finger of his right hand were cut and bruised between irons while he was operating the big steam shear in the 'smith shop.

Mr. Wood, who is connected with the freight department of the Pennsylvania road at Toledo, was in the city over night, leaving this morning over the Grand Rapids road, for his home. He was a resident of this city two or three years ago.

The annual meeting of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern will be held November 29, at which time William Green will be elected vice president. On December 1 he will retire from the position of general manager of the Baltimore and Ohio lines.

C. W. Arnold, a Pittsburg fireman, slipped on his engine as the train was passing Valparaiso last night, and fell against the side of the cab with the result that his breast and side were severely injured. He will be unable to work for some time.

Rhinesmith & Simonson will soon place the counters and office furniture in the new quarters of the Gazette, in the Elektron building. The lumber used in the construction of this furniture is the finest quarter-sawed oak and the design and workmanship are such as to reflect credit upon the men who are engaged in building it.

F. E. Long, conductor on the Nickel Plate, has reported for duty after being absent for a few days to attend the funeral of his father, J. S. Long, who was an old pioneer of Noble county, being eighty-one years of age. He was the father of fourteen children, forty grandchildren and twenty-seven great grandchildren. He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his departure.

Dr. E. H. Griswold, of Peru, one of the surgeons of the Wabash railway hospital at that point, is thought to be in a dangerous condition from blood poison, contracted while amputating the limb of a man who died a few weeks ago from that disease. Dr. Griswold is well known to all the Wabash shopmen and trainmen in this city and is held in high regard by them. They will be sorry to learn of his misfortune.

District Passenger Agent R. G. Thompson feels pretty jubilant over the heavy business in the passenger line that his company is receiving from this territory at present. No. 3, the westbound train, last night had twenty-five through passengers aboard when it pulled out of this station, included being a party of six hunters, headed by G. R. Wickwire, of Arcola, who were bound for Paragould, Ark. There were also other parties who purchased tickets to points in Kansas, Missouri and Arizona.

Notwithstanding the nearness of winter, there is considerable building in progress. Hull & Haag have commenced work upon the dwelling house to be erected for Hon. William Shambaugh, on West Berry street, the same to cost about $4,000; Contractor Grotholtman has a party of men at work upon the foundation for the Nordhurst house, on Berry and Fulton streets, and Paul Stark has commenced the erection of a fine house for himself in the south side. All these contracts will be crowded to completion as rapidly as possible.

An official of the Wabash says that the story about the Wabash purchasing the Grand Trunk's air line, running from Buffalo to Detroit was rather premature. "It would be a very valuable acquisition on the part of the Wabash," said he, "but I doubt if the time is ripe for the change. The Wabash has been hampered somewhat by occupying this line in conjunction with the foreign road. It's the same case of two families living in the same house and not agreeing. The air line is of little use to the Grand Trunk for through traffic, and the rent it receives from the Wabash, amounting to $275,000 per year, is a rich bonus."

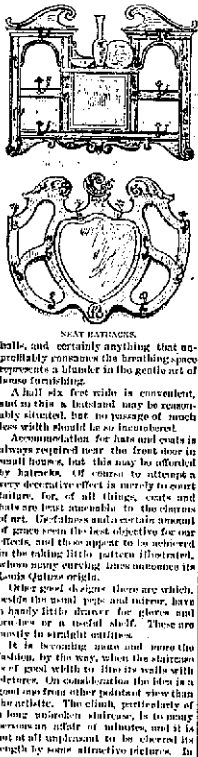
HALL FURNISHING.

A Convenient and Necessary Article—Pictures on the Staircase.

The beneficent conviction seems to be on the increase among householders that the average hall of a small dwelling becomes inconveniently crowded when a visitor, the hostess, a hatstand, two chairs, a perambulator and a bicycle meet in such a narrow rendezvous. As a rule, even the thickness of the wall-paper is an undesirable encroachment upon the precious room of most small halls, and certainly anything that unprofitably consumes the breathing space represents a blunder in the gentle art of house furnishing.



SEAT HATRACKS.

A hall six feet wide is convenient, and in this a hatstand may be reasonably situated, but no passage of much less width should be so incumbered.

Accommodation for hats and coats is always required near the front door in small houses, but this may be afforded by hatracks. Of course to attempt a very decorative effect is merely to court failure, for, of all things, coats and hats are least amenable to the charms of art. Usefulness and a certain amount of grace seem the best objective for our effects, and these appear to be achieved in the taking little pattern illustrated, whose many curving lines announce its Louis Quinze origin.

Other good designs there are which, beside the usual pegs and mirror, have a handy little drawer for gloves and brushes or a useful shelf. These are mostly in straight outlines.

It is becoming more and more the fashion, by the way, when the staircase is of good width to line its walls with pictures. On consideration the idea is a good one from other points of view than the artistic. The climb, particularly of a long unbroken staircase, is to many persons an affair of minutes, and it is not at all unpleasant to be cheered its length by some attractive pictures. In some homes there are a series of photographs along the stairs, those of celebrities being more often selected than the pictures of the friends of the family.

gave me as delicious a cup of coffee as I ever tasted in my life, and I could drink all I wanted of it without the heart trouble and dizzy headaches that had followed me for years. I was always tired when I was using coffee, and many times have been told if I would quit coffee I would get well, but how could I quit? I am wiser and healthier now, and would not begin to go back to the old-fashioned coffee, for I enjoy life too much when I am healthy.

I came pretty nearly being driven away from Postum the first time I tried it, but I determined to see that it was made right the next time, and found out that it must be boiled, and that's all there is to it. We have three little children, and they can have all the Postum coffee to drink they want, and they never fail to want it.
